75 ATTEND BENEFIT CHURCH SILVER TEA

Seventy-five persons attended the Wednesday afternoon silver tea, given under the sponsorship of the Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, at "World's End", the home of Mrs. R. B. Eskridge, on Satulah mountain. The home was almost garden-like with its artistic flower decorations, arranged by Mrs. Anne Rymer.

Receiving with Mrs. Eskridge were her daughters, Dr. Edith Eskridge Haynes, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Rudolf Hartzburg, of New Orleans, and officers of the auxiliary. The auxiliary officers include Mrs. H. D. Porterfield, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Miss Katherine Jungerman, Miss Rebecca Nall, and Mrs. Shorter Rankin. Others assisting in receiving were Mrs. George Saussy and Mrs. Fred Gould.

The tea-table was covered with an Italian cutwork cloth and centered with a silver bowl holding white summer flowers, interspersed with maidenhair fern, and flanked by silver candelabra with white tapers. Mrs. Tudor N. Hall poured punch, and Mrs. William C. Nall and Mrs. Val S. Pierson assisted in serving.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector, and others from Franklin were present, as well as the Rev. Frederick L. Eckel, of St. Philip's cathedral, in Atlanta, and Mrs. Eckel, who are spending a vacation in the Episcopal rectory in Cashiers.

The auxiliary members have expressed thanks to the generous friends who helped to make the tea a success, and especially to Chief A. M. Nelson, who directed the parking of the cars.

MISS ANDERSON HONORED BY AUXILIARY AT CLYDE

On her visit last week with Mrs. Grover Haynes in Clyde, Miss Angela Anderson, bride-elect of James Edwin Hardin, was honored with a party given by the young woman's auxiliary of the Baptist church. In a candlelight service preceding the party, Miss Anderson was presented with a white Bible, which she will carry at her wedding next Sunday.

Following the presentation of the Bible, the party was held in the church recreation room, where refreshments were served.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER HONORS MRS. RHODES

Mrs. Joseph W. Reese, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Potts, and Mrs. Coleman M. Reese were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon at the home of the latter, complimenting Mrs. Davis Rhodes, a July bride.

The home was decorated with mixed dahlias.

Mrs. Thomas Potts poured punch, and refreshments were served buffet style at a table covered with a lace cloth and centered with a floating arrangement of white and red dahlias.

The courtesy included forty persons.

THEATRE GROUP HONORS FRED ALLEN AT PICNIC

A picnic supper at Cliffside Lake Thursday evening honored Pfc. Fred C. Allen, former director of the Highlands Community theatre who is on a ten-day leave.

The supper was given by members of the theatre group and their families.

Mr. Allen directed many of the Community Theatre's most successful plays, following the resignation of Director Arthur Little. Fifty persons enjoyed the occasion with Mr. Allen.

MRS. HOWE PRESENTS PROGRAM AT AUXILIARY

Mrs. James H. Howe, chairman of Christian education, presented a short program at the August meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, Thursday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Howe's program was the first of several such programs planned by the auxiliary.

Highlands Loses

To Clayton, Ga. And Iva, S. C. Teams

After five wins, the Highlands nine lost two games in a row—to Clayton, Ga., and Iva, S. C.

The Highlands team bowed to Clayton, 20 to 4, in a night game last Thursday, and was defeated by Iva, 9 to 5, in a game here Sunday afternoon.

The locals will meet the Appleton company team from Anderson, S. C., on the Highlands diamond Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

In last Sunday's contest, Iva got 16 hits, 9 runs, and made one error. The Highlands statistics were: 10 hits, five runs, five errors.

Highlands' Bud Potts got the longest hit, a triple down the right field.
