The Panthers meet the maurading Maroons in Bryson City October 26 and every good sports fan in this end of the cellar who doesn't attend the game and yell for the home team oughta be tied to the front of the blocking sled during football practice.

It means a lot to the local lads to 100, around and see that the folks are behind them.

And that goes, too, for you fans who have been roosting on the banks and in the trees outside the Franklin stadium yea these many years!

This school golf tourney is still raging on the local nine and the finals are set for something next week. This, we hope, we will be able to cover fully, since we are more than overjoyed at the sudden golfing urge. If you want to see just what the lads are fighting for, drop by Perry's Drug store on the Franklin main drag and see the three articles in the window. A fellow would almost be will-ing to play golf with a pool cue and a shovel to win one o. those things. REMINDER

Reminder: The Panthers play in Franklin again tomorrow night. Some fellows from Robbinsville are coming over for a little game of football. Let's see all of you there!
