Two Hikers Reach End Of Appalachian Trail

The two hikers who were walking the Appalachian trail from the north to the south, an account of which appeared in the October 11 issue of The Press, reached the end of their journey last week.

The Press received a post card from the hikers saying they had reached Mt. Oglethorpe, the end of the 2,028-mile trail.

Personal Mention

Mrs. J. R. Overton has returned from a week's visit in Charlotte.

William Parrish, of Norfolk, Va., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Parrish, of Otto, over the week-end.

Mrs. C. A. Sutton, of Washington, Ga., spent the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. S. H. Lyle, Sr.

Mrs. C. A. Cabe, who had a stroke of paralysis last week, is reported to be seriously ill. She is a patient at Angel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Collins, of Fayetteville, Tenn., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Alsop.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness shown during the death of our dear husband and son.

Mrs. Don Kimsey
Mrs. Frank Carpenter.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank each one for the donations that you gave us during my sickness. It would be impossible to thank each one separately, for we got many gifts from people we don't know. We want to thank each one also who offered a prayer to God in my behalf.

Grady Henry and Family.
