

Mrs. A. Estes Dies At Home At Cullasaja

Mrs. Artie Lauanna Estes, a native of Jackson County and a resident of this county since 1919, died at her home in the Cullasaja community Sunday morning, Sixty-two years old, Mrs. Estes had been in poor health for some time.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Savannah Baptist church by the Rev. Fred Sorrells and the Rev. Frank Holland. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Born June 22, 1889, Mrs. Estes was the daughter of Henry and Mrs. Rebecca Sutton Buchanan, of Jackson County. After her marriage, May 22, 1907, to Robert Estes, of Macon County, the couple lived in Montana until 1919, and then returned here. She was a member of the Savannah church.

Survivors include her husband; two brothers, Allen and Thomas Buchanan, of Greens Creek; two sisters, Mrs. Oma Wanchester, of Waynesville, and Mrs. Bell Cabe, of Greens Creek; and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were the following nephews: Jess, Bob, and Floyd Estes, David Stanfield, and Glen and Theron Cabe.

Bryant Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Founders' Day Program Held By Otto P. T. A.

A Founders' day program featured a meeting of the Otto Parent-Teacher association last Thursday night at the school.

A history of the school P. T. A. was enacted by pupils of Mrs. Eunice Siler's seventh grade.

The founders' program originally was scheduled for presentation in February, but was postponed because of an outbreak of influenza in the school.
