MRS. BANKS FINGER

MISS DOUGLAS WEDS
C. BANKS FINGER
Miss Beatrice Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Douglas, of Sanford, became the bride of C. Banks Finger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Banks Finger, of Maiden, on March 23 at the First Baptist church in Sanford.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before a background of ferns, lilies, and lighted cathedral tapers by the Rev. Wilbur Hutchins and the Rev. C. T. Taylor.

Mrs. Fred Ray, organist, and Miss Frances Baker and L.D. Bryant, Jr., vocalists, presented a program of wedding music. The bride was attired in a gown of white net and satin fashioned with a tight bodice of lace. The very full skirt was worn over hoops. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid. Her shoulder length veil was of French illusion.

PROVEN MICA MINE

Was opened at tail-end of last war and only scratched, and has not been worked since. It is half-mile from town limits, and easily accessible on gravel road, with ample water available to mine. Government prices from $15 to $70 per pound now assured for three years. Full cooperation by owner will be given responsible principals, to make thorough investigation, without obligation. Write: Box 262, Franklin, N. C. A3-1tc men are asked to go to the basement to shovel garbage off the floor, or to clean it off shelves.

FOR RENT — 4-room cottage with garden. Lights and water. See Miss Nettie Hurst, Franklin, Route 3.

In commenting on the matter of families without garbage cans, Mr. Ledford pointed out that a town ordinance requires every family to have a closed, metal container for garbage. That is a health requirement, he said, in addition to facilitating the collection.

The schedule for the truck probably will ready to be announced next week, he said.

Miss Imogene Douglas, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Fred Gordon also a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Finger, of Maiden, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Martha Lewis, of Raleigh. Their dresses, in pastel shades, were fashioned like that of the bride. They carried old fashioned nosegays.

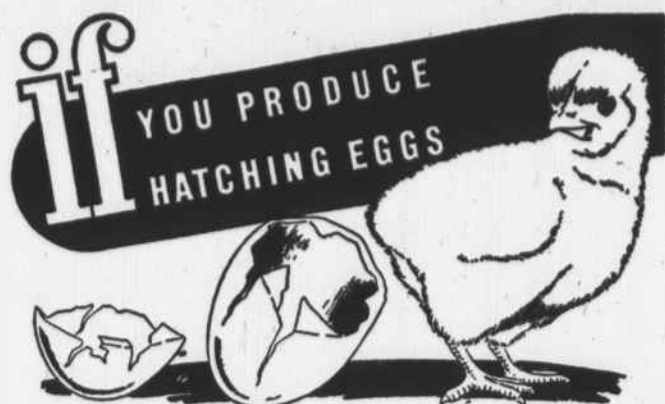

Neil Finger, of Gastonia, served as his brother's best man, and Worth Hester, of Bladenboro, Robert Floyd, of Fairmont, and Fred Gordon, of Sanford, were ushers.

Mrs. Finger is a graduate of Campbell college and of Wake Forest college, and attended the W. M. U. Training school in Louisville, Ky. She is the Baptist associational worker for Macon County.

Mr. Finger is a graduate of the University of Mississippi and the Wake Forest law school, and is a Franklin attorney.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Cuba. They are now at home in the Leach apartments.

North Carolina imported nearly 14 million pounds of milk for bottle sales from January through September of last year.

Feed for breeding stock is vitally important because all nutrients for the developing chick embryo must be put into the egg. . . MASTER MIX Breeder Mash with M-V, made for this important job, contains—with the addition of sensational Methio-Vite—adequate potencies of all known required vitamins, quality proteins, and minerals—the nutrients known to be essential for high hatchability and vigor in chicks.
