MISS PERTEET BECOMES BRIDE OF MAX PARRISH

Miss Ruth Cannon Pertee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pertee, of Wiley, Ga., was married to Max Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Parrish, of Otto, in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at the Presbyterian church in Wiley.

The Rev. L. B. Gibbs officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with native greenery, floor baskets of white gladiolus and candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. S. Bearden, pianist, and Mrs. Bill Blalock, vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white tulle over white satin trimmed in Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a cap of matching lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids.

Mrs. William Parrish, of Norfolk, Va., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of coral embossed net over gold satin with matching headdress. She carried an arm bouquet of pink shattered carnations.

William L. Parrish, of Norfolk, Va., served as his brother's best man. Rafe Teague and Calvin Henson were ushers.

The bride's mother wore pink silk with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue dress with navy blue accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Parrish is a graduate of the Lakemont High school.

Mr. Parrish is a graduate of Franklin High school and attended N. C. State college in Raleigh. He is now serving as instructor with the Veteran's Farm Training program here.

Thomas Talley, Of Highlands, Dies March 20

Thomas Nathaniel Talley, a 26-year-old Macon County native, died March 20 in a Sylva hospital after an illness of about six weeks, it has been learned here.

Graveside rites were conducted the following day at 11 a. m. at the Bryson cemetery, on Clear Creek, by the Rev. Oscar Nix and G. R. Talley.

Born April 9, 1925, Mr. Talley was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Talley, of Highlands. He was a member of the Highlands Methodist church and served as superintendent of the Clear Creek Methodist church Sunday school before moving to Atlanta, Ga., about six years ago. In 1945, he was married to Miss Winefred Chastain, who survives.

Other survivors include his parents; a daughter, Janet; two sisters, Mrs. Lyman Pcklesimer, of Highlands, Walhalla route, and Mrs. Richard Burton, of Atlanta, Ga.; and two brothers, Claude and Radford Talley, of Highlands.

Arrangements were under the direction of a Sylva funeral home.

Beauty Culture Scholarships Being Offered

Two Franklin High school seniors will receive $100 scholarships toward his or her tuition at the Harper Method Beauty school in Atlanta, Ga., according to Principal R. G. Sutton.

One scholarship is being offered by the Martha Matilda Harper Memorial foundation, the other by a local doctor.

The two recipients will be judged on the basis of a special aptitude test, which will determine their fitness for the beauty culture field, it was explained. All members of the senior class, both boys and girls, are eligible to compete for the scholarships. The winners will be announced prior to graduation exercises in May.
