

Betty Lynn Wright Christening Held

Betty Lynn Wright, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barak Wright, was christened April 13 in a service at the Highlands Methodist church by the Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor, following the Easter worship service. The church was decorated by Mrs. M. M. Hopper with all white flowers and a cross of Easter lilies. Standing with the parents were Mrs. Helen Wilson, the baby's paternal grandmother; Earl Crunkleton, the maternal grandfather; and Mrs. Lawrence Howard, a great-aunt. Betty Lynn's christening dress was the hand-made dress of linen and lace worn by her sister at her christening, and was the gift of an aunt, Mrs. Payton Crunkleton. The cap worn by the child was the cap worn by her mother, the former Miss Frances Crunkleton.

NOW OPEN

Every Saturday Night

HELEN'S BARN

HIGHLANDS, N. C.

GALAX

THEATRE
HIGHLANDS

Friday-Saturday, April 25-26

Lew Ayres & Marilyn Maxwell

In

"NEW MEXICO"

Shows at 7:00 and 8:40

Monday-Tuesday, April 28-29

Doris Day and Gene Nelson

In

"LULLABY OF BROADWAY"

Shows at 7:00 and 8:45

Highlands Highlights

MRS. H. G. STORY

HARRY BATY DIES SUNDAY IN VIRGINIA

Services Held Monday At Parents' Home Here

Funeral services for Harry William Baty, 38, who died at his home in Manassas, Va., early Sunday morning, were held here at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Baty. The Rev. John C. Corbitt, pastor of Highlands Baptist church, and the Rev. Robert E. Early, pastor of Highlands Methodist church, officiated. Burial was in Highlands cemetery.

Pallbearers were Oliver Baty, Toliver Crunkleton, Ralph Crunkleton, J. W. Baty, Jack Baty, and Jesse Keener, honorary pallbearers were C. T. Burnette, Charles Houston, Tudor Calloway, Arthur Potts, Bill Woods, and Weldon Paul.

Mr. Baty was born November 22nd, 1913, and in 1934 was married to Miss Lillian Webb, who survives. Surviving also are six children, Robert, Roy Lee, and Judy, of the home, and Connie, Carl, and Clarence, at the D. A. R. School in Tommassee, S. C.; one brother, Sam Baty, of Highlands; three sisters, Mrs. Ray Norton, and Mrs. Paul Waldon, of Highlands, and Mrs. Robert Moore, of Manassas, and his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Baty.

Speaker Urges Keeping Region Way It Was Made

Watson Barratt, owner of the Bascom Louise, a Highlands summer hotel, addressed the Rotary club at its supper meeting April 18 at the Highlander cafe on the subject of keeping the community as nearly as possible in "the condition that Nature gave it to us".

Mr. Barratt was critical of cluttering up the highways and landscape with useless signs or anything that mars the beauty of the mountain scenery.

C. C. Potts was program chairman.

Plunges To Death Over Waterfall

Miss Martha Sue Carlin, popular 18-year-old Brenau college student, plunged to her death over a 150-foot waterfall during a picnic outing last Thursday, it has been learned here. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Carlin, of Miami, who have owned a summer home in Highlands for many years.

Miss Carlin was wading with other students in a stream above Glade Shoals, in the North Georgia mountains 12 miles from Gainesville, when she slipped and fell down the sheer granite wall which carries the cascade. An ambulance crew lifted her body from the pool below the falls about a half hour later. She had apparently died instantly from a broken neck, it is reported.

In addition to her parents she is survived by two brothers, Robert, a student at the University of Florida, and James, of the U. S. Navy.

BOBBY HUNT HAS PARTY ON HIS FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Bobby Hunt celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary April 12 with a party and Easter egg hunt at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hunt, Jr., on Fifth street. Guests were Eddie Potts, Christopher Wentzel, Mary Wentzel, Margaret McCarty, Douglas Crisp, Anne Wilson, Vivian Ledford, and Lamar Billingsley. The prize for finding the most eggs went to Douglas Crisp.

Assisting Mrs. Hunt in entertaining were Bobby's brother, Tommy Hunt, and the Misses Mary Lou McCarty and Georgia Cleaveland.

3 ARE HOSTESSES TO BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Sara Gilder, Mrs. Elliot Caziarc and Mrs. W. H. Cobb were hostesses at a recent meeting of their bridge club at Miss Gilder's apartment on Oak street.

High score prize was won by Miss Katherine Jungerman, and the Bingo prize by Mrs. J. D. Harcombe.

MISS BARBARA JAMES

MISS BARBARA JAMES TO WED W. J. TAYLOR, JR.

Mrs. Lawton P. James, of Highlands, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Barbara M. James, to Walter J. Taylor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Taylor, of Staten Island, N. Y.

Miss James is employed by the Book of the Month Club, Inc., in New York City. She is a graduate of Rabun Gap-Nacoochee school, Rabun Gap, Ga.

Mr. Taylor holds the position of radio officer aboard vessels of the Sacony Vacuum Oil company, of New York. He attended Curtis High school in New York, and U. S. Maritime schools. He is a lieutenant in the U. S. Maritime service.

The wedding is planned for August in Highlands.

THREE ENTERTAIN CARD CLUB TUESDAY

On Tuesday of last week Miss Katherine Jungerman, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall entertained their card club at the home of Miss Jungerman on Cullasaja heights. A profusion of jonquills and other spring flowers decorated the living room where the three-table game was played.

Mrs. J. D. Harcombe won high score prize and Mrs. D. B. Wentzel the Bingo prize. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Anne Rymer.

Hemphills Give School Nine History Volumes

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Hemphill have given the Highlands school, Ridpath's History of the World, composed of nine volumes, according to an announcement by O. F. Summer, school principal.

Mrs. Early To Serve On School Faculty

Mrs. Robert E. Early will leave Friday for Goldsboro where she will serve on the faculty of a training school for church workers. She will teach a course in children's work and expects to return to Highlands the following Friday.

College President Will Preach Sunday At Methodist Church

Dr. J. J. Stevenson, acting president of Brevard college, will preach the morning worship service at the Highlands Methodist church Sunday, the pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Early, has announced.

Announce Revival Series At Baptist Church Here

A revival service will be held at the Highlands Baptist church from April 27 through May 3, it has been announced by the pastor, the Rev. John C. Corbitt. Guest preacher will be the Rev. W. L. Sorrells. Services will begin each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Give Highlands Post Office 99 Per Cent Rating

A grade of 99 per cent was attained at a recent inspection of the Highlands post office, it has been learned.

Postmaster C. C. Potts and the employees are very proud of such a fine grade, which Mr. Potts said is the best grade made by this office in his 17 years of supervision.

Six Attend District Rotary Meet In Shelby

Attending the 280th district Rotary meeting held in Shelby last Friday and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harblson, and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Mizener. Mr. Perry is the outgoing president of the Highlands Rotary club on July 1st, and Mr. Harblson is the incoming president on that date.

No 1

Between two automobiles on the Georgia road snuffed out the lives of three young people and the county's lead position in highway safety.

The "safest county in the state" was the result of a com-

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Matthews and family, of Atlanta, Ga., have returned to Highlands and are occupying the Brockway cottage on the Dillard road. Dr. Matthews, a former Highlands physician, has announced that he will do X-ray work in Western North Carolina hospitals.

Lawrence J. Holt is visiting his brother, Richard C. Holt, and family in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The Richard C. Holt's are expected to return to Highlands early in May.

Dr. Charles A. Townsend, former head of Highlands Community hospital, and Mrs. Townsend, of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending this week at Miss Sara Gilder's cottage on Satulah road. With Dr. and Mrs. Townsend are two friends from Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt Terhune have returned to "Westervelt Fields", their home on the Dillard road, after a winter in New Orleans, La.

Corporal R. L. Beal, who has been serving with the 101st Signal Corps in Korea for the past twelve months, will go to Camp Jackson, S. C., following a 31-day furlough here with his mother, Mrs. Ruth Beal.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Trussell and Mr. and Mrs. Morton Hodgson, of Athens, Ga., were among the many week-end visitors in Highlands, and expect to return some time in May to open their summer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Simonson, of Palm Beach, Fla., are visiting Mrs. Simonson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Moore, on Mirror lake. The Simonsons are supervising a new guest house at their summer home, "Seven Acres", and expect to open the new unit in June.

L. W. Rice, Sr., has returned to his home on West Main street, after spending the winter at the Rice hotel in Stuart, Fla., with his son, Herbert W. Rice and family. He was accompanied to Highlands by L. W. Rice, Jr. The latter has returned to Florida, after a short visit here.

Mrs. Edward Schine and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sullivan and children, of Staten Island, N. Y., have returned home after a ten-day visit with Highlands relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Barak Wright and children, of Greenville, S. C., were recent guests of Mrs. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crunkleton.

Dr. Eugene Zemp, of Columbia, S. C., spent the Easter week-end here at his summer home on the south side of Satulah mountain.

Mrs. Michael Hoke, of Sarasota, Fla., and Highlands, left last week for a two-months' trip to Europe.

No. 2

Sorrells and Mr. Nøjen, are seeking their second two-year terms. Mr. Sorrells, a resident of the Cowee township, is owner of J. C. Sorrells Motor company in Franklin. Mr. Nøjen, of Cartoogechay, is in the electrical business.

Mr. Cabe is an employe of the State Highway commission; Mr. Siler is associated with Macon Construction company here; Mr. Calhoun is a farmer and operator of a grocery store; Mr. Bryson is the son of Walter Bryson, a retiring school board member, and is in business with his father; Mr. Roland is the county jailer; Mr. Jacobs a farmer; Mr. Archer, president of the Nantahala Power and Light company; Mr. Norris, operates a store on the Georgia road; Mrs. Fouts operates a kindergarten in Franklin; and Mrs. Phillips, mother-in-law of candidate Neville Bryson, runs a grocery store in the Shortoff community.

The three members of the present board of education who are not seeking reelection are Bob S. Sloan, chairman, Walter Gibson, and Walter Bryson.

By law, nominations to the school board are made in the primary, but the actual appointments rest with the general assembly, which as a rule names those Democrats chosen in the primary. Appointments will not be confirmed by the assembly until next spring and the board will not go into office until the first Monday in April, 1953.

parative analysis of statistics from the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles and the Carolina Motor club, made by The Press.

At that time Macon and six other counties in the state reported no fatalities for the year, but this county was "safest" by virtue of having more automobiles registered than any of the others.

Since only the larger cities generally are recognized for safety achievement, The Press took the initiative and suggested to the safety division that Macon County be cited for its accomplishment.

Satterwhites Appointed Missionaries To Japan; Plan To Leave In July

Dr. James P. Satterwhite, head of the Highlands Community hospital, and Mrs. Satterwhite were appointed medical missionaries to Japan by the Foreign Mission board of the Southern Baptist convention at a recent meeting in Richmond, Va. They expect to sail from San Francisco in late July to begin a year of language study in Tokyo before opening a hospital in Japan. With them will be their three sons, Jimmy, 5, Stevie, 3, who was born in Tokyo while Dr. Satterwhite was stationed in Japan as a medical officer, and David, three months.

Sailing with the Satterwhites will be Dr. Audrey Fontenote, of New Orleans, La., and the Rev. and Mrs. Virgil McMillan and their two young daughters of Alabama and Texas. Doctors Fontenote and Satterwhite will build the hospital in Japan in anticipation of three other doctors joining them in a year or two.

Mrs. Satterwhite, a registered nurse, is a graduate of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing and of Wake Forest college. She taught nursing at her Alma Mater, and has done supervisory work in two other hospitals.

Dr. Satterwhite is a graduate of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Wake Forest College and took his post-graduate training in the adjoining North Carolina Baptist hospital before beginning family practice in Highlands in January of the year.

Eleven Attend Church Fellowship Supper

Eleven men were present last Thursday night at the Presbyterian Church Men's Fellowship Supper club, held in the church dining room, with Louis A. Edwards, president, presiding.

Mrs. C. E. Mitchell was chairman of the supper group serving the supper. Assisting Mr. Mitchell were Mrs. Tommy Hunt, Mrs. Sidney Carter, Mrs. Harry Holt, Miss Kathryn Baker, Mr. Charles J. Anderson, and Mr. Don Watson.

No. 3

history work book exhibit placed third.

Miss Mildred Gregory was awarded second place (French) and Miss Betty Henry third (Latin) in foreign language tests.

Third place in public speaking went to Richie Jones. Jack Love placed third in literature.

First places in the mathematics division were awarded Lonnie Crawford, plane geometry, and John Henderson, senior mathematics survey.

Highlands winners included Miss Ann Stevens, second, handicrafts; Miss Audrey Deal, second, French reading; Miss Muriel Miller, first, French grammar; Miss Ruby Cabe, third elementary algebra; Miss Beverly Cook, third, general science; Louis Reece, third, physics; and Miss Mary Jo Newton, second, alto solo.

Waynesville High school won first place in the annual event and Murphy High took second.

No. 5

anced meals, budgeting, and home improvement and beautification. Between the two acts, a female sextet from the seventh grade, under the direction of Miss Alice Weaver, public school music teacher, sang three songs.

Margaret Crawford served as mistress of ceremonies.

As their demonstration, the vocational agriculture boys held a meeting of their 84-member organization, Future Farmers of America, at which reports presented to the meeting gave the audience an idea of the successful projects completed, and of projects under way. The boys' meeting was marked by careful observance of parliamentary procedure. The vocational agriculture work at the school is directed by Wayne Profit.

Mrs. S. H. Lyle was program chairman.

At the business session of the parent-teacher association, Mrs. James McCollum, who attended last week's state P. T. A. convention in Asheville as the local P. T. A.'s delegate, reported on the convention, and Mrs. Weimar Jones announced that the local association was awarded a certificate of standardization.

The report of the treasurer, Miss Edna Jamison, showed $300 appropriated for cleaning equipment and materials for the Franklin school, $300 for equipment for the lunchroom, and $175 for projection room equipment.

The nominating committee, headed by John Crawford, reported it still had been unable to find a president for next year, and choice of a president was deferred. Mrs. Allen Siler is concluding her second year as president, the limit under the by-laws.

The attendance was reported as 120, with the attendance awards going to the rooms of Miss Elizabeth Meadows and Edwin Williams.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan conducted the devotional, and Mrs. Siler presided.

HODGES HERE

Luther H. Hodges, of Leaksville, candidate for lieutenant governor in the Democratic primary, visited in Macon Friday. He was accompanied by W. W. Shope, mayor of Weaverville.

of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Wake Forest College and took his post-graduate training in the adjoining North Carolina Baptist hospital before beginning family practice in Highlands in January of the year.

Eleven Attend Church Fellowship Supper

Eleven men were present last Thursday night at the Presbyterian Church Men's Fellowship Supper club, held in the church dining room, with Louis A. Edwards, president, presiding.

Mrs. C. E. Mitchell was chairman of the supper group serving the supper. Assisting Mr. Mitchell were Mrs. Tommy Hunt, Mrs. Sidney Carter, Mrs. Harry Holt, Miss Kathryn Baker, Mr. Charles J. Anderson, and Mr. Don Watson.

DRESS SALE

Several dozen to pick from. Prices marked down 25 to 50 per cent on June Fox brand.

Also several dozen print dresses.

Reg. $3.50, reduced to $1.95

Talley & Burnett
Highlands, N. C.

NOW!
BRIGHTEN UP DRAB FLOORS AT AMAZINGLY LOW COST!

KENTILE FLOOR!

are Guaranteed as long as you live in your home

KENTILE HOME OWNER'S GUARANTEE
Kentile will replace, without charge, any Kentile tile that is cracked, broken, or any other defect, during your own lifetime. This guarantee is not voided by any other tile in the room. The guarantee must be applied for within 90 days after the date of installation. A contract is made.

Kentile's bright colors work wonders in any room! And you can have any design you wish... even special decorative inserts for very special touches. These stain-and-dirt resistant floors are a cinch to clean... and occasional waxings make them sparkle. Lastingly beautiful... Kentile colors go clear through the tile. No wonder Kentile is guaranteed as long as you live in your home.

KENTILE
The Asphalt Tile of Enduring Beauty
FRANKLIN HARDWARE CO.
Always Parking On The Square
Phone 117
Franklin, N. C.

Take it Easy... with colorful, comfortable

CHAISE COTS

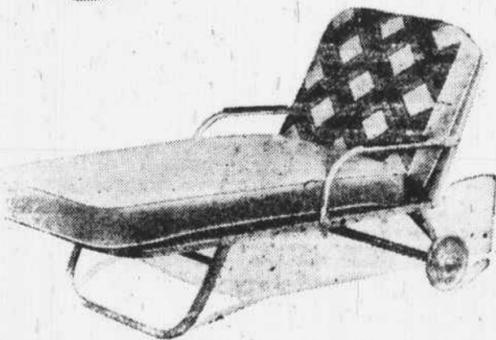

"Luxury Lounger" the model 60 is the last word in chaise cots and that word is "comfort". A wider, longer cot that adjusts to four sitting positions. Heavy duck or durable plastic covers. Fine tuftless, innerspring construction. Double hinged pad.

$4950

"The Relaxer" model 57 is everything the name implies. Here is a chaise cot just made for relaxing with a comfortable innerspring pad and fingertip controls that adjust to three sitting positions.

$3950

"The Comfortee" model 50 proves that comfort can be bought at a price... your price. The soft, channel-felt pad with water-repellent covering adjusts to two sitting positions. Even rubber tire wheels at this price!

$2450

BRYANT FURNITURE CO.