MISS FLANAGAN WEDS LT. MARION R. WALTZ

Miss Ann Flanagan, daughter of Mrs. John Arthur Flanagan, of Franklin, became the bride of Lt. Marion Riley Waltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Waltz, of Barnwell, S. C., at a ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Hoyt Evans, of Gastonia, former pastor of the church, officiated. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Margaret Cooper, organist, and Miss Helen Bloodworth, vocalist. The church was decorated with Oregon fern, white gladiolus, and candelabra holding lighted Cathedral tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John Flanagan, of Camp Atterbury, Ind., wore a floor length gown of Swiss embroidered organza over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, short sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her finger tip veil of net illusion was attached to a halo of seed pearls and orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a cameo brooch, which belonged to her mother. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Ann Lewis, of Whitmire, S. C., was maid of honor and Mrs. James Newton, of Bowling Green, S. C., cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Neal Ratchford, of Gastonia, cousin of the bride, and Miss Jeanette Waltz, of Barnwell, S. C., sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical gowns of white embroidered organza over yellow taffeta with wide yellow sashes. They carried arm bouquets of yellow roses and purple iris with yellow streamers.

Reginald William, of Barnwell, S. C., served as best man. Ushers were Neal Ratchford, of Gastonia, and Ivan Johnson, of Denmark, S. C., cousins of the bridegroom, and W. C. Hill, of Barnwell, S. C.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party received guests on the lawn of the church.

The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua crepe with a lace yoke and a lavender orchid. Mrs. Waltz, mother of the groom, wore a gown of aqua crepe and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride wore a navy blue ensemble with lavender accessories for traveling.

Mrs. Waltz was graduated from Winthrop college and teaches at the Barnwell High school.

Lt. Waltz was graduated from Clemson college and was employed by Southern Bell Telephone company in Columbia, S. C. He will report for active duty at Hamilton Air Force base in California on May 16.

After a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., the bride will continue her duties as teacher at Barnwell. Following the close of school, she will join Lt. Waltz.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Waltz, Barnwell, S. C., Mrs. Laura Johnson, Denmark, S. C., Mrs. Hoyt Evans and daughter, of Gastonia, Fred Wilson, of Gastonia, uncle of the bride, Mrs. W. C. Hill, Miss Betty Ann Smith, Miss Ann Owings, Miss Jennie Agan, Miss Mary Emily Webb, of Barnwell, S. C., and James Newton, of Bowling Green, S. C.

MISS ELLIS ENGAGED TO WILLIAM W. SLOAN

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd James Ellis, of Fayetteville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Frances Ellis, to William Weimer Sloan, Jr., son of Mrs. William Weimer Sloan, of Franklin.

The wedding will take place June 21 at the First Baptist church in Fayetteville.

MISS PANNELL BRIDE OF HERMAN L. TALLEY

Miss Hazel Pannell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pannell, of Franklin, became the bride of Herman L. Talley, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Talley, at the Methodist parsonage in Bryson City on April 25.

The parsonage was decorated with arrangements of fern, white lilies, and tulips. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Culbeth, pastor of the First Methodist church. Wedding music was played during the ceremony.

The couple entered the parsonage together. The bride wore a navy blue gabardine suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with two purple orchids.

Mrs. Don Allison, of Bryson City, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. She wore a grey gabardine suit with white accessories. Little Mike Allison served as ring bearer.

Don Allison served as best man.

Following the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip through the Smokies and Lake Lure. They will reside in East Franklin.

Mrs. Talley is a graduate of Rabun Gap-Nacoochee school and is manager of Pannell's Feed store.

Mr. Talley received his education at Franklin High school. He is engaged in farming and dairying.
