AWARDS MADE TO STUDENTS AT EXERCISES

Awards were presented to the outstanding members of the Highlands High School student body at graduation exercises last Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas Harbison, representing the Highlands Masons and the Order of the Eastern Star, presented the citizenship awards to Miss Lydia Crunkleton and Ervin Dendy.

Principal F. N. Shearouse presented awards to Miss Joan Cabe and Miss Crunkleton for their outstanding scholastic work in high school. Principal Shearouse also presented certificates to the winners of the annual field day event at Cullowhee.

On behalf of the Woodsmen of the World, Principal Shearouse presented history awards to Miss Crunkleton for making the highest average in the class of American History. Bobby Norton, a seventh grader, received a gift for his work in American History.

Team Edges Sylva 7-6

The Highlands baseball team edged a close victory over the Sylva colored team Sunday, June 5, by a score of 7 to 6.

A return game will be played in Sylva on June 18.

This leaves the Highlands team with a record of five wins and one loss.

Sunday, June 12, Highlands will play the Cashiers-Glenville team here.

Tuesday Study Hour

A story hour for younger children was held Tuesday morning at the Hudson Library.

The "hour" is planned each Tuesday at 11 a. m. with Mrs. Upton C. Evans in charge. All children are welcome.

Miss Mary Josephine Newton, a student at Women's College, University of North Carolina, has returned home for the summer.

Charlie Ray Norton, a student at N. C. State College, is spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Ray Norton.

Miss Lydia Burris, of Greenville, S. C., spent the week-end at her summer home on Flat Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hicks and children, of Augusta, Ga., are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hicks.

The Rev. and Mrs. L. Eugene Walter, Mrs. J. D. Burnette, and Miss Jan Burnette spent Tuesday at Mars Hill College, Mars Hill.

The John A. Lyons, of Anderson, S. C., have opened their house on Hickory Street for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Houston and children have moved to Miss Ethel Calloway's house on the Asheville road.

The average family in the 1920's spent about 25 cents of its wage dollar for food. Today's family still spends about the same proportion of its income for food, but eats more meat, milk, eggs, vegetables and fruits and fewer cereals and other staples.
