week at Slagle Memorial Building.

For the summer, and until arrangements can be made to provide a center, activities for the town's young people will swing back and forth from outdoor activities on the high school athletic field and at East Franklin School, to indoor recreation in the school cafeteria and special parties and dances at Slagle Memorial.

Youth center memberships have been set at $3 and will cover all night meetings, except special events. A schedule of meetings will be announced later.

H. H. Gnuse, Jr., is chairman of the board of directors of the center. Serving with him as directors are Ralph L. Smith, Dr. G. R. McSween, Mrs. Lucy Bidle, and Mrs. Harve Bryant.

The citizens committee for several weeks had hoped to raise enough money to build a center on West Main Street property donated by A. A. Slier.

Mrs. William Katzenbrink is ill at her home.

of Hopewell, Va., and Carl, of Franklin; a daughter, Mrs. Verna Green May, of the home; a brother, Cling Green, of Jackson County; a sister Mrs. Sampson Parris, of Sylva; three grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Fallbearers were J. Harry Thomas, Harve Bryant, Jack Gribble, Ben Harrison, Lee Tippett, and Herman Childers.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

GOING TO CHARLOTTE

Mrs. Frank L. Henry, Jr., Mrs. Nat Phillips, Mrs. E. J. Carpenter, Mrs. Blanche Parrish, and Mrs. William G. Crawford plan to leave Sunday for Charlotte to attend the 50th anniversary meeting of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. They are members of the Nequasee chapter in Franklin.

COWEE CAKE WALK

The Riverview Methodist Church will hold a cake walk and box supper Saturday night, June 11 at 8 o'clock, at the Cowee School. The proceeds will be used to improve the church cemetery.

Lamb And Wool Pools Slated

Macon farmers will sell wool and lambs through two special pools next week under the supervision of the N. C. Department of Agriculture, according to County Agent T. H. Fagg.

A two-day wool pool is slated Monday and Tuesday (June 13-14) at the Carolina Warehouse in Asheville. Local farmers not planning to deliver wool to the pool may leave it at the Farmers Federation in Franklin before 12 noon on Monday for shipping to Asheville that afternoon. The county agent cautioned farmers using the latter method to have names and addresses on the inside and outside of each bag.

A lamb pool has been scheduled for Monday in Clyde. In order for lambs to bring top prices, Mr. Fagg said they should weigh from 80 to 95 pounds. They must be in the stockyards at Clyde by 10 a. m. Monday.

HATCHETT AT CAMP

The Rev. Bryan Hatchett, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian Church, this week is attending Camp Hope, near Canton, as recreational director. He plans to return home Saturday.

196 ACRES
Here is a desirable mountain property that owners have been holding at $7000. However — after appraising the property for a quick sale — I now have it signed up at my appraised valuation of only $4500. That's $2500 less! It is on a State (gravel) road 2½ miles off paved highway — 12½ miles from the Court House. It has fine springs, streams, about 15 acres cultivating and 35 acres pasture, lots of locust and saw timber, good view, and two old 4-room houses, both livable. Buy this property for only $4500. It's a good buy and a sound investment!
