Garden Club Sponsoring Bridge-Canasta Party

The Franklin Garden Club will sponsor a bridge and canasta party tomorrow (Friday) night at 8 o'clock in the Franklin High School cafeteria.
Prizes will be given for high, low, and draw for both men and women.

HOMECOMING SUNDAY

Homecoming will be observed at the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday, it has been announced.

Colored Servants To Give Musical

HIGHLANDS. — The annual musical, presented by the colored servants of Highlands, will be held on Sunday evening, August 20, at 8 p. m., in the school auditorium.

The program will feature spirituals, gospel songs, and anthems. The program will be under the direction of Carrie R. Smith.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Highlands Methodist Church and to the Highlands Community Hospital.

Church To Conduct Bible School Here

HIGHLANDS. — The Baptist church will open a daily vacation Bible school on Monday, August 22.

Classes will be held for nursery age through intermediates. The school is under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. L. Eugene Walter.

FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

In last week's listing of Superior Court dispositions, it was reported that Howard Crawford Ledford was fined $200 and costs for drunk driving and speeding (75 m.p.h. truck). The defendant was charged with drunk driving and speeding, but entered a plea of reckless driving and was fined $200 and costs.

Youth Leaders Elected To Coordinated Revival

Members of the youth council of the First Baptist Church, which will coordinate arrangements for the youth revival at the church August 21-28, have been elected.

They are Bobby Womack, president; Douglas Pearson, vice-president; Robbie Gay Talent, secretary; Mrs. M. W. Chapman, adult adviser; Mrs. Howard Barnwell, minister of music.
Guest preacher for the series is to be the Rev. William Henry Crouch, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church in Jackson, Miss. Services are to be held nightly at 8 o'clock. The church choir will present special music under the direction of Mrs. Barnwell.

Children's Popularity Contest To Feature V. F. W. Production

A popularity contest for children up to six years is to be held in connection with the V. F. W.-sponsored production, "Holiday Ahoy".

"Holiday Ahoy" is to be given August 25-26 at the East Franklin School at 8:13 p. m. to raise money for grassing the football field. An all-local cast of between 75 and 100 persons is now rehearsing for the musical review. Jack Ragan will be master of ceremonies and lead roles are being held by Andrew Jones, Howard Barnard, and Woodrow Shope. Veora Lee, of Bradenton, Fla., is director. Commander Zeb Meadows is chairman of advance ticket sales.

In the popularity contest, three boys and three girls will be picked through penny-a-vote balloting. Voting jars and pictures of the young contestants are in business establishments. The winners will be awarded prizes the 26th as the first act of "Holiday Ahoy".

Information on the popularity contest may be obtained from Mrs. Berry Slagle by telephoning 903. She is being assisted by Mrs. Rachel Fagg and Mrs. Margaret Dowdle.

Team Defeats Anderson 7-5

HIGHLANDS. — In Sunday's game with a team from Anderson, S. C., Highlands came out on top by a score of 7 to 5.

Richard Thompson was the winning pitcher. Highlands received 12 hits in the game and Anderson 6.

Thompson was the leading hitter for Highlands with three for four, and Dick Rice was second with two for three. Anderson didn't score until the 5th inning.

On Sunday, August 20, Highlands will play the Seneca All-Stars, with the starting time for the game at 2:30.

MRS. LEACH DIES AT 85

Widow Of Franklin Man; Services Held Here Tuesday P. M.

Mrs. Katherine Hampton Leach, widow of the late John R. Leach, of Franklin, died Sunday (August 14) in Alexandria, Va., at the age of 85. She had been ill only a short time. She was a sister of Mrs. John Wright and Misses Laura and Ida Leach, of Franklin.

Funeral services for Mrs. Leach, a native of Graham County, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Franklin Presbyterian Church by the Rev. S. B. Moss, Methodist pastor. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Daughter of the late Wade and Mrs. Sallie McElroy Hampton, Mrs. Leach lived in Andrews until the death of her husband in 1946. She was a member of the Andrews Methodist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. B. W. Rising, of Winter Park, Fla., two grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Pallbearers were William R. Waldroop, Charles Waldroop, Fred Slagle, Hugh Leach, Bob Waldroop, and James P. Cunningham.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

BEG YOUR PARDON

In its issue of August 4, The Press erroneously listed a member of the grand jury as C. S. Talley. The name should have read C. S. Tilley.
