

Mrs. Reese Sweepstakes Winner In Flower Show

By JAN BURNETTE
HIGHLANDS. — "Parade of Stars" annual flower show sponsored by the garden club here, was blessed with a sunny day Saturday and an enthusiastic group of some 400 spectators.

It would be difficult to pick the finest part of the show; the artistic arrangements, the horticultural specimens, the commercial exhibits of various gifts and decorating shops, or the displays of special exhibitors.

Mrs. Robert Reese won the coveted sweepstakes award with 81 points and several blue and red ribbons. A well-known Highlands flower grower, Mrs. Reese, placed versatile and beautiful entries in several classes in the show. She is believed to be the first native Highlander to win the sweepstakes award.

In horticulture, Mrs. A. T. Carter won the tri-color with her gold band lily, and the arrangements tri-color ribbon was awarded to Mrs. Frank Cook for her artistic display of white gladioli and dahlias in an antique white pitcher.

Mrs. W. P. Payne, of Stanley, was in this section Sunday, visiting her brothers, John and Vance DeHart, and families. She was accompanied by her grandson, Cecil West, and his friend, Miss Swineheart, also of Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hamilton and family, of Briartown, visited Mrs. Hamilton's sister and brother-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Judd Smith, recently.

The average cow gave 5,500 pounds of milk last year.

WAYAH BALD LODGE
Modern Summer Hotel near Franklin that would also be ideal for use as a sanitarium, convalescent home or private club. In perfect state of repairs, this six-year-old property is completely furnished and equipped to accommodate 24 guests — including dining room, kitchen and 36 ft. lounge. In a lovely 20-acre setting with a truly gorgeous view, this beautiful property was priced to sell at $60,000 in 1952. Now, to settle estate (due to owner's death), the price has been slashed to only $32,500 with half cash, and widow will carry paper at 5%. (Property was appraised for N. C. State Inheritance Tax at $45,000.) A really Terrific Buy that indicates prompt action!
