Mrs. Sierks Sells Out To Mr. And Mrs. Yost For Estimated $27,000

Sale of Wayah Bald Lodge, in Wayah Valley, was announced last week.

The 13-bedroom lodge, built in 1948 by the late William Sierks and Mrs. Sierks, was sold by the latter to Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Yost, formerly of Nebraska, more recently of Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

Revenue stamps on the deed indicated a sale price of approximately $27,000, which, it was understood, was paid in

Mr. and Mrs. Yost already moved into the lodge, Mrs. Sierks, the former owner, has gone to Florida for the winter. The Yosts this week were not ready to announce their plans for the lodge.

The building, which has eight bathrooms, faces Wayah Bald. and stands on a 21-acre plot. The original cost, including The original cost, including furniture and equipment, was said to have been approximately $50,000.

The sale was handled by Ted Reber, realtor.
