MISS FREDA MOORE TO MARRY JACKSON

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Moore, of Franklin, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Freda K. Moore, of Franklin and Marietta, Ga. to Bill J. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jackson, of Leicester.

The wedding will take place Saturday, April 14, at 4:30 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents.

MISS HENSON MARRIES JAMES F. TAYLOR

Miss Betty Jean Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Henson, of Franklin, and James F. Taylor, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. V. Taylor, of Murphy, were married Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Franklin Methodist Church.

The Rev. Samuel B. Moss, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, organist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue linen suit with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Miss Shirley Cloer, of Franklin, served as maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

Dr. Taylor was his son's best man.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of Franklin High School and is now attending Western Carolina College, Cullowhee. She plans to enter the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, this fall.

Mr. Taylor is a graduate of Young Harris Academy, Young Harris, Ga., and is a senior at Western Carolina College. He plans to enter medical school at the University of North Carolina this fall.

The couple left on a wedding trip immediately following the ceremony. For traveling, the bride wore a gray wool suit and white accessories and her bridal corsage. Upon their return, they will live at Cullowhee for the remainder of the school year.
