MISS LONG ENGAGED TO E. T. WAMSLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long, of Franklin, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Iris Long, to Edward T. Wamsley, son of U. S. Navy, Newport, R. I., son of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Wamsley, of Asheville.

MISS DUVALL MARRIES CHARLES A. BERRY

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Duvall, of Franklin, Route 4, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Lee Duvall, to Charles Allen Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry, of Franklin, Route 5.

The ceremony was performed by Judge R. C. Carter, II, at Wahalla, S. C., on May 5.

The bride is a graduate of Franklin High School, Class of 1955.

The groom attended Franklin High School and is employed by James McClure.

MISS CANTRELL MARRIES MILTON H. ALFREDSON

Miss Bertha Lee Cantrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cantrell, of Franklin, became the bride of Milton H. Alfredson, son of Carl E. Alfredson, of Meriden, Conn., and the late Mrs. Alfredson, Saturday, June 23, at 6:30 p. m., at the Cowee Baptist Church.

The Rev. C. C. Welch, a former pastor of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Patricia Tatham, pianist, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ed Brogden, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace over bridal satin, fashioned with a V-neckline and long sleeves ending in callalily points over the hands. Her fingertip veil was of imported French illusion and attached to a Juliet cap of imported Chantilly lace, seed pearls, and sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid with white satin streamers.

Miss Louree Queen was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of blue nylon tulle over taffeta designed with a fitted bodice. Her headdress was of rosebuds and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Miss Cleo Gregory and Miss Cora Ann Queen were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of yellow and pink nylon tulle over taffeta, fashioned identical to that worn by the honor attendant. Their bouquets were of mixed flowers.

Howard Cantrell, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Fred McGaha, uncle of the bride, and Roy E. Jones were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Fred A. Moore and Mrs. Fred McGaha, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. James Ray Smith and Mrs. Howard Cantrell, sister and sister-in-law of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Connecticut and New York, the bride wore white and blue print dress with matching blue fitted duster and white accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Alfredson is a graduate of Franklin High School, Class of 1955, and for the past year has been employed at Burlington Industries.

Miss Alfredson is a graduate of Meriden High School, Meriden, Conn.

The couple plan to make their home in Miami, Fla.

The bride was attired in a sheath dress of pale blue linen with which she wore white accessories.

Mrs. Brantley

She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, showered with white satin streamers.

Accompanying the couple to Westminster were Mrs. Polly Bule, cousin of the bride, Miss Sarah Smart, and Dean Henson.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn.

Mrs. Brantley is a graduate of Franklin High School and attended the Comptometer School of Charlotte. She is now employed as receptionist for Nantahala Power and Light Company.

Mr. Brantley is a graduate of Carlisle Military School, Bamberg, S. C., and attended Clemson College, Clemson, S. C. After having served four years with the U. S. Navy, he is now associated with his father in Structures, Inc., bridge contracting firm.

The couple is now residing in the Wiley Clark cottage on the Highlands road.

BUTTERSCOTCH PIE

- 1 pint milk
- 1 cup medium brown sugar
- 2 heaping tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 heaping tablespoons flour
- 2 egg yolks
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 3 tb. butter
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Method: In the double boiler heat the milk. In a bowl mix well the sugar, cornstarch, and flour. Add hot milk to the sugar mixture, stirring as it is added. Pour the mixture into double boiler. Stir and cook until mixture thickens. Cover and let cook about 15 minutes longer. Beat the eggs and add the salt. Stir this quickly into the milk mixture. Add butter, stir and cook until the egg thickens. Remove from heat and add vanilla. Pour into a baked crust. Cover with the following meringue:

- 2 egg whites
- 2 tb. medium brown sugar
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Add the salt to the egg white, then beat until stiff. Add sugar and vanilla, folding the sugar into the egg whites. Spread on top of filling. Bake in moderate oven 300° for 15 to 20 minutes.

Flower Show Plans Heard; Canton Woman Is Speaker

The Franklin Garden Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grant Zickgraf, with Mrs. W. W. Sloan, Sr., Mrs. B. B. Scott, Miss Evelyn Hope Daniels, and Mrs. Zickgraf as hostesses.

Mrs. J. Ward Long, president, presided.

Mrs. Allan Brooks, chairman of the annual flower show, which is to be held at the Franklin High School cafeteria on Friday and Saturday, July 27 and 28, stressed the importance of the exhibitors getting their entries in Friday July 27 from 8 a. m. to 10:30 a. m., so they may be classified by the entry and classification committee. She said that those desiring to do so may bring their entries on Thursday evening, July 26. Exhibitors must furnish their own containers.

Mrs. S. R. Simpson, chairman of horticulture, demonstrated how the gladioli should be groomed for the show in order to make the best showing.

Mrs. James B. Hurley, of Canton, district program chairman, was guest speaker. She made a brief talk on flowers and their arrangement and demonstrated arrangements, showing the type of container best suited for the arrangement. She urged the members to concentrate on a few good arrangements rather than a quantity of mediocre ones.

It was announced that the August meeting will be a picnic at Arrowood Glade with Mrs. J. Ward Long, Mrs. J. M. Archer, Jr., and Mrs. B. L. McGlamery as hostesses.

Approximately 30 members and visitors were present.
