IN WINSTON-SALEM —

Miss Holbrook Bride Of Herbert Hall

Miss Eddis Holbrook, daughter of Mrs. James Holbrook, of Franklin, and the late Mr. Holbrook, and Herbert Hall, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hall, were married Saturday, July 21, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Hugh Burrell, in Winston-Salem.

The Rev. W. E. Pettit, pastor of Ardmore Baptist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony before an improvised altar decorated with lighted candles.

Mrs. Roy Rickman, of Franklin, the bride's niece, presented the wedding music.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, held a wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Mrs. David Beck and Mrs. John Davis assisted in serving.

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip. On their return they will be at home at 2312 Queen Street, Winston-Salem. Mr. Hall is employed as supervisor by R. J. Reynolds's Tobacco Company.

To Boost Trade In FRANKLIN

The Franklin Press cordially invites its regular display advertisers in Franklin to be guests at a dinner at 6:45 next Wednesday evening (August 8) at Cartoogehaye School.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss ways and means of promoting more trade in Franklin.

While the dinner will honor local advertisers in The Press, a representative of any business here that would like a part in helping to increase Franklin trade will be welcomed.

--- JUST ONE REQUEST ---

If you plan to attend, PLEASE notify The Press not later than Monday, August 6, since we must know in advance how many to prepare for.
