KINGSBERYS CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kingsbery held open house at their home on White Oak Street last Wednesday evening (August 8) on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Kingsbery were their daughter, Mrs. Emily K. Ferrara, of New York City, and their granddaughter, Mrs. Edwin Benson, and Mr. Benson, of Fremont, Neb.

Here to celebrate with his great-grandparents was two-year old Gregory Benson, whose birthday falls on the Kingsberys' wedding anniversary.

Arrangements of gold and yellow flowers were used throughout the house. Mrs. Roy F. Cunningham assisted in serving small cakes decorated in gold, gold punch and mints.

Approximately 100 guests called and numerous gifts, cards, telegrams, and cablegrams of good wishes were received by the couple.

At Jacob's Home — Miss Watts Is Bride Of Strauss

Miss Minnie Elizabeth Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Watts, of Franklin, Route 1, and Walter Rudolph Strauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strauss of Palatine, Ill., were married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jacobs.

The Rev. Robert J. Goldston, pastor of the West Macon Methodist Circuit, performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families and a few close friends.

Mrs. Strauss attended Franklin High School and Mr. Strauss is in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Va.
