Mount Hope Votes Home For Pastor

Mount Hope Baptist Church unanimously voted Sunday to build a home for its pastor on Wayah Valley Road, just off US 64, west.

The structure will have three bedrooms, a kitchen, dinette, living room, bathroom, and study. Land for the home was donated by church members and the construction of the home will be done by the congregation.

Appointed to the building committee were Patrick T. Rogers, chairman, W. M. Dalrymple, Bob Parker, Rex Lindsey, and Wesley Gregory. H. H. Flemmons drew the plans for the building. Work will get under way soon.

The Rev. John Ralph Willis is pastor at Mount Hope. He has been there for about one year.

Setzers See Their Fourth Daughter Given Nurse's Cap

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Setzer were in Atlanta last Thursday night for the capping of their fourth daughter to become a nurse.

She is Miss Margaret Ann (Anna) Setzer, a student at Georgia Baptist Hospital. Miss Setzer's three sisters who are nurses also were present. They are Mrs. Agnes Hunton, of Greenwood, S. C., and Misses Jean and Mary Setzer, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who are working at Woman's Hospital there, as well as going to Tennessee Temple Bible School.

Only two of the Setzer daughters are not nurses. They are Mrs. Wayne Harrison, a beautician in Franklin, and Miss Helen Setzer, who attends Franklin High School. The Setzers have a son, Richard, who is in high school here, and another son, Edwin Ray, Macon County dairy farmer.

When asked if she were a nurse, Mrs. Setzer replied: "Well, I started to be, but it was kind of late when I became interested in it. Before I could finish, I was prevailed upon to be married. That ended that."
