

Brady's BLARNEY

By A Brady Called J. P.

The "One Way" street sign at the corner of Phillips and Porter and the movie advertisement on a truck parked just behind, "Between Heaven and Hell" make a pretty convincing combination.

(Thanks to Mrs. Joyce Cagle for the observation.)

Just for the record, Franklin hasn't fared too well in well digging.

It has now hit two "dry holes" out of seven shafts. It's about average to hit four dries out of each hundred shafts, according to the well digging boys.

It occurred to me the other day that just about everything happens to us in this business (newspapering) because our business is everything.

The football prowess of young Tom Hunnicutt at Lee H. Edwards High in Asheville, which was discussed here a couple of columns back, has really paid dividends.

Tom has now been offered a full scholarship to the University of North Carolina.

Some more filling for "Sweet Tatum Pie"!

C. O. Ramsey was telling the other day about the fellow who was asked: "Do you owe any back house rent?"

"Goodness no," the man replied. "We haven't had a back house in years, we use modern plumbing."

While watching the slow-rise of the Little Tennessee the other night, I stopped in at Radford Jacob's spanking new service station along the river.

A young boy in a flashy car pulled out of the station just as I went inside. Inside were another boy and a couple of nice looking girls. The car had an out-of-state tag.

Radford said the boy had asked to borrow a syphon hose. Naturally he refused him.

However, the boy assured him he would find one somewhere else. Have you checked your gas gauge lately?

Mrs. Crawford Joining Husband In Hawaiians

Mrs. Sam C. Crawford and young daughter, Sandra, will join her husband soon at his new U. S. Navy duty station in the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Crawford, a chief electrician's mate and veteran of 16 years' Navy service, is serving with airborne early warning squadron at the Barber's Point Naval Air Station, Oahu, T. H.

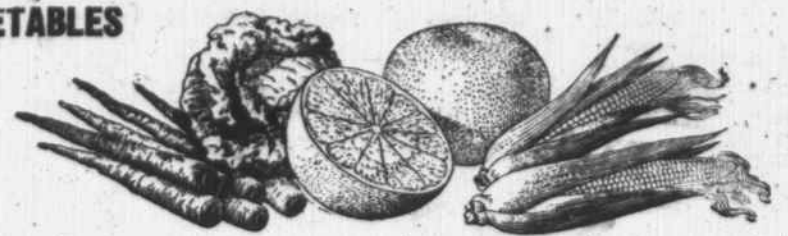

Before being transferred to the Pacific, the Crawfords were stationed at Brunswick, Ga., at a navy blimp base.

Since Christmas, Mrs. Crawford and Sandra have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyatt, of Savanna, in Jackson County, and Mr. Crawford's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Lee Crawford, Franklin, Route 4. Mrs. Crawford is the former Miss Myrtle Hyatt.

Her husband's work at his new station is with a squadron which is part of the Pacific Airborne Early Warning Wing, its mission is to extend the distant early warning (DEW) line of radar stations now stretching across northern Canada and Alaska. This extension brings protection from the Aleutian Islands across the Pacific to the Hawaiians.

Under new amendments to the social security law, farm landowners may qualify for social security.
