AT METHODIST CHURCH

Miss Thomas Weds R. F. Myers

Miss Shirley Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Thomas, of Franklin, Route 2, became the bride of Robert Furman Myers, son of Mrs. Lawrence Myers, of Franklin, and the late Mr. Myers, Wednesday, Jan. 30, at 5 p. m.

The wedding took place at the Franklin Methodist Church, and the Rev. S. B. Moss, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony. The vows were spoken in the presence of the families and friends of the couple.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Margaret Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, sang "O Perfect Love".

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the assembly room of the church. Mrs. S. B. Moss, assisted by Miss Meta Angel, served bridal cakes and punch.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Detroit, Mich., where the groom is employed.

At Alamance Church —

Miss Robinson Marries Zickgraf

Miss Geraldine Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Lucile Payne Robinson, of Greensboro, and the late Henry Horton Robinson, became the bride of William Grant Zickgraf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant L. Zickgraf, of Franklin, Wednesday of last week at the Alamance Presbyterian Church in Greensboro.

Dr. Benjamin Brown, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Miss Nancy Allen, of Greensboro, and Kenneth Lambert, of Norfolk, Va., presented the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Aiken Robinson, of Knoxville, Tenn., wore a ballerina-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin with lace appliques bordering the scoop neckline. A satin cummerbund bound the waist, with a bow and long streamers in center back. The full skirt had a scalloped hemline. Her veil fell from a half hat of lace, and she carried bride's roses.

Miss Martha Ann Robinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Virginia Dare Robinson, sister of the bride, and Miss Jane Zickgraf, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They all wore sheath dresses of embroidered white lace over green taffeta, and carried white roses and carnations. They wore green taffeta halo hats.

Mr. Zickgraf served as his son's best man.

Junior usher was Henry Horton Robinson, Jr., brother of the bride, Kathryn Zickgraf, sister of the groom, was flower girl.

Groomsmen were Stephen Payne Robinson, of Greensboro, Charlie Krepp, of Baltimore, Md., Coleman Barks, of Chattanooga, Tenn., Hank Dreyfoos, of Washington, D. C., and David Pollock, of Franklin.

A reception followed in the social hall of the church. Assisting were Mrs. Eli Bowling, Mrs. Edna McFeters, Miss Doris Oliver, Miss Marsha Hart, Miss Peggy McFeters, Miss Bobbie Watkins, and Miss Kathryn Potter.

The couple will live in Chapel Hill, where Mr. Zickgraf is a student and Mrs. Zickgraf is employed in the office of the School of Medicine.

Those from Franklin attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Zickgraf, parents of the groom,

LANDMARK GONE — This is the old Lyle home, just out of Franklin on the Dillsboro road, which was torn down recently. The photograph was made about 1891. When did the house, built by Dr. J. M. Lyle, go up? Older residents fix the time the Lyle family moved in—the last wagon-load of their household furnishings crossed the Little Tennessee River from Franklin just a few minutes before the old covered bridge across the river collapsed. That was about 75 years ago. Miss Laura M. Jones, who loaned the picture to The Press, was able to identify most of the persons on the front porch. At the left, seated, are Mrs. Lily Jones and her sister, Mrs. A. S. Bryson, with their children. Standing at the left of the door are Dr. Lyle and his son, Dan Lyle, who lives in Peck, Idaho. In the doorway are Mrs. Lyle and her sister, Mrs. J. B. Cunningham. In the group at the right are Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Lyle and their children.

Claudia Ragan Has Birthday Party

Sweet, smooth and sassy—that's Chevrolet all over. Above, you're looking at the Bel Air Sport Coupe.

Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too—with up to 245 h.p.*

Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet.
