SPRING?
Businesses
Are Preening
This Week

Although maybe a little prematurely, a number of Franklin businesses are succumbing to the promise of Spring and are re-decorating and installing new fixtures.

A complete remodeling program has been under way for several days at the Dixie-Home Store. The job includes new lighting fixtures, painting, and the enlarging of some departments. A Winn-Dixie supervisor, here to help with the project, estimated the remodeling costs at $6,000.

Dryman's, men's and boys' clothing store, also has been re-decorated. Estimated cost, $600, according to Prelo Dryman.

Macon Bargain Store has just installed new lighting fixtures at a cost of $339 and other improvements are planned, the owners, Sam Gibson and Hall Callahan, said this week.

Angel Drug Store is sporting a new green with white trim interior.

Macon County Supply Company also is coming under the paint brush this week.
