Busy Was Word On Tag Sales

Busy was the word of the local branch of the Carolina Motor Club as motorists poured in Friday and Saturday to purchase license tags.
The tag deadline was Saturday midnight.
On Friday, 200 automobile and 139 truck tags were sold and on Saturday 170 auto and 85 truck tags purchased. Through Saturday, 2,510 auto and 1,257 truck tags were sold.

North Carolina is the only one of 11 Southeastern states where cash receipts from farming increased each year for the past three years.

★ HOLLY SPRINGS ★
Unusually desirable two-bedroom, two-bath home built in 1955, with about 45 acres of land, and located in one of our truly fine communities. It has about 1200 sq. ft. of living space, plus a large two-car garage with overhead doors. This fine home has beautiful pine-paneled walls and ceilings, finest oak flooring, lots of closet and storage space, telephone, 100% insulation, excellent gravity spring water supply and a delightful view. The owners of this quality-built home wanted $16,000 for it. But, their loss is your gain, as I now have it for sale at a low-down Firm Price of only $12,500. Among the extras included are: Thermador electric wall oven, built-in counter electric stove, beautiful built-in cabinets, 106,000 BTU Richmond central heating plant with thermostat control and 275 gal. storage tank, steel casement windows, 60 gal. electric hot water heater, unusual designed fireplace and large picture window in the living room, recessed lighting, TV aerial and beautiful window draperies. If you can afford to buy this property, and have looked at others in its price range, then — by all means see this fine offering before it is sold! Gladly shown by appointment.
