Big Crowd Turns Out For Picnic

Federation's Event Marked By Talks On Activities Of Year

One of the largest crowds of the season turned out for the Farmers Federation's annual Macon County picnic Saturday at the East Franklin School.

More than 1,500 persons ate watermelon, drank lemonade, and heard James McClure Clark, Federation president, describe the farm cooperative's many programs and activities designed to build W. N. C. farm income.

Mr. Clark called for more efficient producers of broilers, hatching eggs, commercial eggs, and aromatic tobacco.

Winners of the prize given for the best local act were the Franklin Sweethearts composed of Myrtis Cabe, of Dillard, Ga., Route 1; Sue Bailey and Colleen Clouse both of Franklin, Route 4.

The Rev. Jack Waldrep, Lord's Acre director, cited several Macon County churches for their accomplishments in carrying out Lord's Acre projects and urged all interested churches to contact him in Asheville for promotional literature.

Other picnic speakers were T. H. Fagg, Macon farm agent; Kenneth Perry, assistant farm agent; Glenn Hunt, poultry division manager; Phil Burch, Hospital Care representative; and Bob Beard, Farmers Federation news editor.

Featured entertainers were "Pamphleteer" Nash and the Farmers Federation String Band; the Blue River Boys; and Lester and Wendell Waldrop, of Route 1.

Special 4-H awards were made by Assistant County Agent Clark Walker to Macon 4-H members Louis Ashe, Clark's Chapel; Spike Maddox, Cartoogechaye; Carol Watkins, Otto; Rachel Brown, Clark's Chapel; Sue Wooten, Clark's Chapel; Opal Vanhook, Clark's Chapel; James Ammons, Clark's Chapel; Robert Enloe, Cartoogechaye; and Dixie West, Oak Grove.

Other prize winners were the Gospelers Quartet, the Fred Fox Quartet, and the L. H. Ledbetter Family Choir.

Local entertainers included Dewey Corbin, of Route 4; Hunter Young, of Route 2; Ed Hixdon, of Route 3; and the Otto Cloggers, dance team from Otto.

July 15: Mrs. Mamie Early, of Franklin and Waynesville; Mrs. Jessie Browning, of Franklin and Waynesville.

Darwin Hussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hussey, of Franklin, is a patient at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville. He underwent surgery Tuesday, July 10.

Joe F. Setser, retired state highway employe, is recovering satisfactorily at C. J. Harris Community Hospital, Sylva, where he was taken July 6 after suffering a heart attack at his Cartoogechaye home.

4-H Club Organized

The girls of the Riverside community met last Thursday at the Coweta Baptist Church to organize a 4-H Club.

The following officers were elected: president, Carol Watkins; vice-president, Joan Thomas; secretary and treasurer, Sarah Bateman; song leaders, Gail Dowd and Jane Knight; and reporter, Nancy Dowdle.

Adult leaders are Mrs. Gen. Bateman and Mrs. Vercoe Watkins.

The club selected arts and crafts as a project for the coming year.

Farm Safety Week To Be Observed

Macon County's observance of National Farm Safety Week (July 21-27) is being planned through the local county agent's office.

This year's theme is, "Safety Makes Sense", according to John J. Wrinn, the assistant agent who is handling arrangements.

Posters dealing with the observance already have been distributed over the county and Mr. Wrinn discussed it on a radio program Monday.

Several rural communities also are planning to feature the national week at their monthly meetings, the agent said.

Corbins Visit Carson Picnic

By MRS. LEONA MOORE
(Community Reporter)

Carson Community had special guests at its picnic and regular rural development meeting Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Corbin showed color slides taken in Alaska, where he teaches school in the winter.

At the business session, it was voted to pay half the expenses of Miss Brenda Cunningham, 4-H club member, who has been chosen to attend the 4-H training school at Swannanoa.

It was decided to hold another picnic at the next regular meeting, August 9.

Several new homes are being erected in the community, including those of Ernest Wallace, Billy Wallace, James Watts, and Parker Norton.

Mrs. Florence Frazier, president, presided.

Harold Henry Arrives At Pearl Harbor For Duty With U. S. Navy

Harold K. Henry, who has been stationed with the U. S. Navy at Port Townsend, Wash., recently spent a 15-day leave here with his mother, Mrs. Thad Mason, and Mr. Mason. He has arrived at Pearl Harbor for duty.

REVIVAL AT IOTLA
A week's revival at the Iotla Methodist Church will open Sunday, with services held nightly at 7:30 o'clock, the pastor, the Rev. L. P. Heafner, has announced. The guest minister will be the Rev. R. L. Poindexter, pastor of the Franklin Methodist Circuit.

Exports of tobacco are expected to remain fairly high in the near future.
