

Brady's BLARNEY

By A Brady Called J. P.

A Franklin part-time resident, J. W. Gustaw, at intervals sends me clips about a variety of things. Several months back he mailed a clip from a northern newspaper of an out-house with all the comforts—to wit, a TV antenna. This week from Mr. Gustaw's home in Woodside, New Jersey, arrived a clip from the Long Island Press telling how a live-

York City (I'll quit talking about it before long, if you'll just stay with me) I kept encountering people who would attempt to mimic my mountain accent, much to the delight of others.

Invariably, they'd keep using "you-all" this and "you-all" that, without regard to correct usage.

So, for their benefit, I'm passing only this little poem, which was passed on this way by Don Smith.

Come all you from other parts, Both city folks and rural,
And listen while I tell you this:
The word "You-all" is plural.

When we say "you-all" must come down,
Or "we-all" shall be lonely,
We mean a dozen folks, perhaps,
And not one person only.

If I should say to Hiram Jones,
For instance, "You-all's lazy"; Or, "Will you-all lend me your knife."
He'd think that I was crack.

Now, if you'd be more sociable
And with us often mingle, You'd find that on the native tongue
"You-all" is never single.

Don't think I mean to criticize,
Or act as if I knew all;
But — when we speak of one alone,
We-all say "you," like you-all.

People make this newspaper game a fascinating profession.
In fact, I can't think of any other reason for my being in the racket.

I enjoy people (yes, even those who chew me out like a top sergeant) regardless of their attitudes or the circumstances under which we meet. It's an education for me.

Occasionally, while working on a story, I come across some people who really make my job worth having—and there aren't many who would want it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennett, who celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary last week, make me want to stay on the forever.

Although I was a stranger to them, they made me feel perfectly at ease while I talked with them about their years of married life.

Probably it was the keen sense of humor both display; something, incidentally, that seems to be characteristic of the older generation in Macon County. They were friendly without being overly so.

I felt like I'd known them for years.

I took the routine picture of the 50-year cake cutting, which appeared in last week's Press.
But the best picture of the Bennetts failed to get in print last week because of space limitations. It's the one below, of the couple while they honey-mooned in Haywood County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett

'Busy Beavers'
4-H Club Formed

By CAROLYN TIPPETT
(Club Reporter)

On Aug. 20, the "Busy Beaver 4-H Club" was organized at a meeting at the home of Mrs.
Claude Beeco.

Thirteen were present and three leaders.

Officers were elected as follows:
Linda Cochran, president; Kate Almond, vice-president; Pauline Morgan, secretary-treasurer; Carolyn Tippett, reporter; and Manda Sue McIntyre and Phyllis Sue Brendle, song leaders.

The leaders are Mrs. Franklyn Morgan, Mrs. Beeco, and Mrs. J.
B. Brendle.

The next meeting will be Sept. 3.

Wiener Roast Held
By Cullasaja 4-H;
To Plan Fair Booth

A wiener roast was held at the community picnic ground by the Cullasaja Community 4-H Club
Monday night.

There were 18 present and after the social hour the group went on a hay ride.

Mrs. Vernon Bryson and Mrs.
Roy Stiwinter were chaperones.
The club plans to meet Tuesday night to work on book books and plan a booth for the county fair.

Agents Talk Fair At Bethel Meeting

Assistant agents John J. Wrinn and Mrs. Mabel Swan spoke at the Aug. 15 meeting of the Bethel Rural Community Development Organization.

They discussed the "Nickels for Know-How" referendum and the coming county fair.

Plans for Bethel's fair booth will be made at a community meeting Sept. 12 at the picnic ground. A picnic meal will be served.

Hayesville Men Rushed
Here For Treatment
After Truck Accident

Two Hayesville men injured in a truck mishap in the Rainbow Springs section late last Thursday afternoon were rushed by pick-up truck to Angel Hospital for treatment.

Identified as Henry R. Rogers and Towery Dowell, they are reported recovering from their injuries.

It is understood they were among several workers riding in the bed of a truck when the vehicle overturned into a stream.

OWNS REAL ESTATE

Mrs. L. B. Phillips says she still owns the real estate in the Phillips Shell Service Station in Franklin and that Bob Phillips has purchased the station stock and business.

MARRIAGE LICENSES Issued

Presulo Crawford, 27, and Mary Johnson, 21, both of Franklin, Aug. 24.

Charles Jerry Sutton, 20, and Betty Jean McCollum, 19, both of Franklin, Aug. 24.

The Press incorrectly identified Judson Andrew Hall as "Judson Andrew Holt" in last week's marriage licenses report.

Mt. Sinai Church Host To Singing

Mt. Sinai Assembly of God Church will be host to the semi-annual singing convention of the northern division Sunday, according to the sing president, John Campbell.

All singers and the public are invited to attend the all-day event, he said.

SING IS CANCELED

The second Sunday singing of the southern division of Macon County will not be held the second Sunday in September. It has been cancelled because the Tri-State Singing Convention is being held at Glenville school that day. The next local sing will be held the second Sunday in October at the Bethel Methodist Church.

WINS VACATION

Bruce Bryant has returned from a week's vacation at Miami Beach, Fla. Mr. Bryant, an employe of Macon County Supply Company, won the vacation by his high percentage of General Electric sales.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

As I end my three-year service as manager of The Franklin Motel, I wish to express publicly my appreciation for the fine cooperation received from the people of Franklin. I am grateful, too, to the other motel managers for the pleasant way they worked with us.
Mrs. Blanche Brinkman
