

BANQUET IS SATURDAY — Deadline For 'Young Man' Nominations 3 P. M. Today

All nominations for the "Young Man of the Year" award must be in the hands of Robert W. (Bob) Moore, president of the Franklin Junior Chamber of Commerce, by 3 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon.

The secret selection committee of non-Jaycees plans to meet tonight and select the winner of the 1957 award, which is made on the basis of community service. Any young man between the ages of 21 and 36 is eligible to be nominated.

Meanwhile, the Jaycees are preparing to honor the "Young Man of the Year" Saturday night at a special banquet at the V. F. W. Building on Palmer Street.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be Jack Sharpe, of Kannapolis, president of the N. C. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Other state officials who will be on hand for the banquet will be

Stover Dunnigan, of Rutherfordton, a national director, and Bill Norris, of Brevard, state vice-president.

Jaycees also have invited a number of local civic and governmental leaders, as well as their wives and employers.
