Bits And Briefs From Cullasaja And Higdonville

Miss Marie Jennings
Staff Correspondent
 Cullasaja School's radio program over WFSC is scheduled for Friday afternoon, January 31, at 4:30. Be listening, folks!
 Last Thursday and Monday of this week were probably very sad days for some of the Cullasaja School children. Icy roads prevented the Goldmine bus from making its run on those days!

The Rev. Conard Barrett, of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church, is teaching church history, using the book "Christianity Through the Centuries", and discussing church doctrine each Sunday evening from 6:30 to 7:30. The doctrine of a different denomination is used each Sunday night.
 Any one interested in these programs is invited to attend.
 Last Sunday afternoon a group of 12 or 15 from Higdonville Baptist Church went to the home of W. R. ("Uncle Bill") Higdon to visit and sing hymns. Mr. Higdon has not been able to go to church lately, and the church group enjoyed going to him.

The Rev. R. L. Poindexter, circuit pastor, conducts services every first and third Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Salem Methodist Church.
 The Baptist Sunday school group meeting for this section will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Ellijay Baptist Church. The theme will be "Visitation".
 The Higdonville Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Alex Higdon on Monday, January 27. Slides on business centers in the home were shown and a discussion was held on what to expect in business trends in 1958. Ten members were present and Mrs. Harry Moses, club president, presided. At the next meeting a food demonstration will be given by Mrs. Fred Corbin.

Miss Carolyn Bryson spent the week end in Winston-Salem visiting Miss Laura Lyle.
 Miss Otela Bryson, of Asheville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Bryson, this past week end.
 Cullasaja Community Development Organization will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday night, February 4, at 7 o'clock at the school. As special features, a tacky party and white elephant sale are planned. All members are urged to attend.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibson visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Will King, in Murphy last Sunday. They were accompanied to Murphy by Misses Carmella Moses and Geneva Ledbetter.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murr, and their daughter and son-in-law, of Canton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crisp week end.
 Mrs. George Bryson has returned to her home here after undergoing surgery at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville. She is much improved and able to be out now.
 FN Bruce Estes, who is serving in the U. S. Navy, spent a 21-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Estes, Saturday. Mr. Estes, Dewitt Thompson, and James L. Estes drove Bruce to Greenville, S. C., to take a plane

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crisp, over the week end, Mrs. Wooten is the former Miss Lena Lee Crisp.
 Sgt. and Mrs. Edward Bowers are the proud parents of a baby boy, Charles Edward, born January 16 at Montgomery, Ala., where Sgt. Bowers is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. Sgt. Bowers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowers.
 Furman Corbin, Jr., of Asheville, visited his grandmother and other relatives here over the week end.
 Alex Ammons, who has been seriously ill, is reported somewhat improved.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ammons' daughter, Mrs. Freeman A. Watts, plans to leave here February 16 for New York, where she will take a plane the 19th for Ulm, Germany, to join her husband, Sgt. Freeman Watts, who is serving with the U. S. Army. Their two children, Sherrill and Sharon, will accompany their mother. Mrs. Watts is the former Miss Nannie Ammons.
