AT SCHOOL REUNION — Old School Chums, Teachers Relive The Good Old Days

Living over the "good old days" and enjoying picnic lunch made Sunday a happy day for students and teachers of the old Morrison School for Girls and the Maxwell Farm School for Boys.

The reunion was held at Slagle Memorial Building and it attracted a large number from several states.

New officers were elected at a business meeting presided over by J. S. Gray, chairman.

They are Mrs. Joe (Harriet Slagle) Setser, chairman; Mrs. Lee (Mary Postelle) Ralston, secretary; Miss Grace Carpenter, assistant secretary; and Mrs. Fred S. (Leona Waldrop) Moore, reporter.

It was voted to hold another reunion (this was the third one) the last Sunday in June, 1960. There are members of the group who are missionaries in the Belgium Congo and others live in faraway places. It is hoped the 1960 gathering will see a lot of them attend.

Those from out-of-town attending the reunion include Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lancaster, of Hendersonville, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Johnson, of Biltmore, Mr. and Mrs. Hayne Arthur and sons, Thomas and Hayne, Jr., also of Biltmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maxwell, of West Minister, S. C., Mrs. Lee Ralston and Mrs. Winston Ralston and daughter, Elizabeth, of Morganton, Ga., Mrs. Margaret Wallace Isbill, of Miami, Fla., Mrs. W. R. Colhn, of Brinkley, Ark.

Resolve now that you will purchase all your medicines and health-aids from your pharmacist for these important reasons.

First — You are safer because our skilled training enables us to protect you more.

Second — We charge no more than food and variety stores, despite the fact that we give a more personal service.

Third — If drug stores do not get these purchases it may become impossible to keep open so many hours. Long after most stores close, your pharmacy is serving you. Isn't it elementary that you should obtain every medicine and health-aid from your pharmacist?

You're Invited To Hear Hodges Speak In Swain

A blanket invitation has been extended to businessmen in seven counties, Macon included, to attend a chamber of commerce rally in Swain County next Wednesday, July 9, and hear Gov. Luther H. Hodges speak.

A barbecue dinner is planned following the governor's speech at the new Swain High School gymnasium at 4 o'clock. Tickets to the barbecue are available through the local chamber of commerce.

About 500 are expected to attend from Macon, Swain, Haywood, Jackson, Clay, Cherokee, and Graham counties.

Purpose of the seven-county rally is to inject some new life into the chambers of commerce.

The Bryson City Junior Chamber of Commerce has charge of the barbecue, which will be held at Deep Creek.

A Swain group will meet the state's chief executive at Lake Junaluska at 2:45 and he will be escorted in a motorcade to the high school for his address.

ROUGH FORK YIELDS TROUT
Conley Wiggins (left) and his son, Clyde, are shown with the big string of trout they caught in Rough Fork on Wayah Saturday. They started fishing at 6 a. m. and by 9:30 had their limit. The string included 18 Brook trout and two Rainbows. The largest, caught by the father, weighed seven pounds, 14 ounces. They used bologna sausage for bait. (Gene Dowdle Photo)

COMMITTEE APPOINTED — Higdon Announces Grants For Two At University

T. B. Higdon, a native of this county and well-known Atlanta lawyer, has established two scholarships at the University of North Carolina for lineal descendants of his grandparents, Maj. William H. Higdon and Logan Berry.

Scholarships of $500 each will be awarded annually to students (boys or girls) who meet the requirements and entrance conditions of the university.

An advisory committee to receive recommendations for the scholarships, Mr. Higdon has appointed Harry C. Corbin, Mr. Albert Ramsey, Sr., and William G. Crawford.

A graduate of the university, Mr. Higdon noted he "would like to have the selections made from high schools or other preparatory schools in that section of North Carolina in which I grew up."
