

Items Of Interest From Cowee Community

Miss Cecile Gibson

Staff Correspondent

A large number attended the community development organization meeting at Liberty Baptist Church last Thursday night, August 8.

Tommy Raby, president, read a card received by the organization from M/Sgt. R. L. McGaha and family from Guam. The committee in charge of the name posts reported that most all posts and names had been erected.

County Agent T. H. Fagg and Mrs. Florence Sherrill, home agent, attended the meeting and plans for the county fair were discussed. Mrs. Sherrill urged everyone to bring something to the fair, and revealed that breads, cakes and pastries as well as canned foods, needle work, flowers, and handicrafts may be entered as individual exhibits. Mr. Fagg said that since the fair is earlier this year it will be possible to take such fresh vegetables as tomatoes, squash, beans, cucumbers, and anything else you might have. Plans are being made for local talent entertainment at the fair on Thursday and Friday night, August 21 and 22. Anyone in the community who can make music, dance, or sing, are asked to let Mrs. Eva Cunningham, recreation chairman, know so their name can be included in the program.

In connection with the fair a chicken barbecue supper will be held Thursday, August 21, at 6:30 at the F.F.A. Building. Tickets for this were distributed to members of the community to be sold, and can also be purchased at the date of the supper.

Plans were made to begin work on a community booth for the fair. Work started on this Monday night. Miss Claudette Leatherman is chairman of the committee to work on a 4-H booth. Working with her are Mrs. Claude Leatherman, Mrs. George Byrd, Mrs. Weaver Holbrook, and Mrs. Woodrow Gibson.

Following the business session, Mr. Fagg interviewed some of the group in regard to community development organization work and future plans. Those taking part in the discussion were Bill Raby, Troy Hurst, Fred McGaha, Tommy Raby, Raymond Shepherd, Miss Claudette Leatherman, Mrs. Furman Shock, and Mrs. Grace Tatham. A recording of this will be heard over the radio at some time in the near future.

Picnic Tonight

The home demonstration club is holding a "family night" picnic at the picnic area tonight, August 14, at 6:30. The whole community is joining with members to have a big supper and a working at the area.

Welcome Hoppers

Cowee welcomes some newcomers to the community. They are Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hopper and family, who recently moved here from Rabun Gap, Ga. The Hoppers live in the house recently purchased by Woodrow Gibson from Carroll Gibson.
