Surprised Lady...

A housewife-motorist recently paid her first visit to a Phillips 66 Station, and reported as follows...

"All I expected from my Phillips 66 Dealer was ten gallons of gasoline and maybe the windshield wiped. But the first thing I knew they had cleaned the windows all around..."

"Was I surprised when the attendant suggested he check the tires, including the spare! Then the battery and radiator. I figured he must have me mixed up with someone important. Wife of the mayor, maybe?"

"You could have knocked me over with a feather when he started brushing out inside the car. 'You do this for everybody?' I asked. 'That's what he said... everybody!'"

"About the gasoline... I got that, too. And that Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel makes my car run swell!"

Sale Is Held

"What am I bid?" Pritchard Russell, as auctioneer, kept the Cullasaja Community meeting in an interested and excited mood last Tuesday night at the "white elephant sale", proceeds of which will be used on community projects. Another interesting feature of the program was the tacky party. Almost everyone participated. Receiving prizes here were Leona Sadler and Gertrude Hughes, tackiest women; Catherine Bryson, tackiest girl; and Dean Stiwinter, tackiest boy.

The Rev. Conrad Barrett conducted the evening's devotional.

Tuesday night the community worked on the fair booth at the school.

Pat Cable was appointed to represent the community at the barbecue supper at the fair to learn how to barbecue so he can give a demonstration to the community.

Those volunteering to keep the picnic area cleaned this month were John Bryson, Roy Stiwinter, Pritchard Russell, and Charlie Holland.

A home improvement reported was a new electric range, by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings.

It was reported that the project at Salem Methodist Church has been completed and the road grading at Sugarfork has been done.

About 46 were present. Miss Barbara Barrett won the door prize. Refreshments were served. Guest at the meeting was Mrs. Chris Swano, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Church Items

Sunday was a big day at Sugarfork. About 300 attended the singing. Singers were present from Rabun County, Ga., Jackson County, as well as many Macon County singers.

A lunch was served at noon. A collection of $17.73 was taken for the upkeep of Sugarfork cemetery.

Next year's meeting of this annual singing is open for invitation. Tom Henson, president, has announced.

The Rev. Jarvis Underwood has announced that he will open a revival meeting Sunday night, August 17, after Training Union. The public is invited to attend these nightly services.

Higdonville Meets

Higdonville community organization met last Tuesday night at the picnic area for a picnic supper and business meeting. Thirty-five to 40 were present. Some work was accomplished on the fair exhibit.
