Some Items Of Interest From Iotla Community

Mrs. Betty Penland Staff Correspondent

60 At Meeting
 The first meeting of the school year of the Iotla Parent-Teacher Association was held last Monday night. Marshall Fouts, newly-elected president, presided at the meeting, which was attended by about 60 persons.

Mrs. Joyce Swafford gave the devotional. The treasurer's report was given, stating a balance of $78.10 carried over from the previous school year.

New business included the resignation of Mrs. Doris Lynch as secretary. Mrs. Ed Carpenter was elected to take her place.

Alex Arnold, principal of the school, discussed the needs of the school to become accredited. Among supplies needed are library books, reading tables, files, musical instruments, and a flag of North Carolina. Mr. Arnold said that since the library had been organized this year, a total of 644 books had been registered. However, one thousand books are needed for the number of pupils enrolled. Mrs. Ed Carpenter, Mrs. Beth Guffey, and Miss Mayberle Moody are making registration cards and classifying the books. The organization voted to adopt the library as a project for this school year.

 Plans were made for the P.T. A. to sponsor a Halloween carnival at the school October 25. Proceeds will be used to buy books for the library.

Appearing on the program were Bennie Ramsey, and Sharon and Sheila Duvall. Bennie, seventh grade student, gave an impersonation of a tramp with his imaginary dog, Roger. Sharon and Sheila sang a trio of songs, with Claudette Leatherman accompanying on the piano.

Contest Plans
 Making final plans for rural community development judging was the main interest of members of the Iotla Rural Community Development at their meeting Monday night at the school. Score sheets were collected and totaled, pictures for the scrapbook were chosen, and the tour of the community planned. James Roper, president, and Mrs. Margaret Ramsey were selected to make the tour with the judges. A meeting of the scrapbook committee was set for (tonight) Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the school.

Mrs. Tallent Feted Mrs. Kenneth Tallent was guest of honor at a household shower given last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Swafford.

Mrs. Josephine Wyatt and Mrs. Paul Swafford were co-hostesses. About 20 guests were present.

Class Supper
 Members of the Home Builders Class of the Iotla Baptist Church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carswell Saturday night at 7 o'clock for a supper meeting.

Club Meeting
 The October meeting of the Iotla Home Demonstration Club will be held Thursday (today) at 1:30 p.m. with Miss Adelaide Brewer, Mrs. Florence Sherrill, home agent, will present a demonstration on home beautification.

Circle 3 To Meet; District President To Address Group

Circle No. 3, of the Franklin Methodist Church, will meet this (Thursday) morning in the social hall of the church at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert E. Early will conduct the devotional and Mrs. H. Bueck will talk on "What Can the Christian Do to Ease World Tensions?"

Lunch will be served at noon, followed by a general meeting of the W.S.C.S., with Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, president, presiding. Special guest and speaker at this session will be Mrs. W. B. Harrill, of Cullowhee, district W.S.C.S. president.
