Miss Cecile Gibson Staff Correspondent

60 At Meeting
Approximately 60 were present at the community development meeting held Thursday night, October 10, at the school.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Troy Hurst; vice-president, Claude Leatherman; secretary-treasurer, Miss Cecile Gibson; program chairman, Bill Raby; and reporter, Mrs. Furman Shook.

Mrs. Weaver Holbrook and John Hurst were elected as youth leaders, and T. M. Rickman and Fred McGaha as social leaders.

The president, Tommy Raby, gave suggestions for preparing for the community judging to be held Wednesday. Mrs. Fred McGaha was asked to serve as scrapbook chairman since the chairman, Mrs. R. L. McGaha, is now on the island of Guam.

The group voted to give $50 to the lunchroom at Cowee School. It was pointed out that there are some people in the community who do not have name signs. It was decided that persons desiring names be responsible for getting them. Some timber is still available for mail box posts, and there are two posts already made at T. M. Rickman's store. Milton Pouts said that if persons needing mail box posts would contact him, the F.F.A. boys would assist in making the posts.

A covered dish supper and working was set for Monday night at the picnic area. The attendance prize of $1 was received by T. M. Rickman.

Following the business session the group demonstrated their skill
