Hi-ya Neighbors:

Being a feller somewhat "sot in my ways" I like tradition. Seems to me that the Easter sunrise service and Gilmer Jones' camp, "High Haven", on Wayah Bald, were just made for each other. But, they've decided that it's too hard to get to the camp and have moved the service to the Franklin High football stadium.

Guess a body can worship his Lord anywhere, but it seems to me that you're a little bit closer to Him on the top of a mountain.

The road to Christianity hasn't been easy, so the preachers tell us, and I'd say the difficulty we faced in trying to reach the Jones camp Easter morning just gave the day a little deeper meaning.

And I thank you.

Mr. Maconian
