GIRL DRIVER

Nantahala School has its first girl bus driver in Miss Wanda Sue Owenby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. General Owenby. A senior and outstanding student, Wanda is an all-conference guard on the basketball team. One of the top drivers in the school's driver education class, she missed making a perfect score on all of her driver's license tests by only three points. Joe Sherrill, the state instructor for the school bus drivers' school, also has high praise for Wanda's ability to maneuver her bus over the Kyle and Aquone Route, which runs up and around Nantahala Lake to the foot of Wayah. Incidentally, Wanda's home is on the head of Otter Creek and she has to walk a mile each morning to where she parks her bus.
