

FRANKLIN HIGH HIGHLIGHTS

By Miss Margaret Davis

Unexpected Holiday
FHS students enjoyed an unexpected holiday Monday, compliments of Old Man Winter, whose light snowfall made community roads slippery and dangerous.

Trophy Given
Last Thursday morning, Swain High School student body president, Miss Freda Ledford, and football co-captains, James Sossamon and Douglas Cole, presented "Old Smoky", the trophy for which the Franklin High and Swain High football teams compete each year, to representatives of Frank-

Sylva High, and Rabun Gap.

Contest On
This year's United Nations Speaking Contest at Franklin High is under way with several students preparing their speeches. This year's theme is, "The United Nations and the Space Age." The winner of the speaking contest and the sponsor will receive an expense-paid trip to the United Nations in New York, with sight-seeing tours of New York City and Washington, D. C. Also, a major Broadway production will be included. The sponsor is Roy M. Biddle, Jr. This is the fifth year this contest has been open to Franklin High School students. The contest itself is jointly sponsored by the Franklin P.T.A. and the American Freedom Association.

Club Brewing
The Students' International Discussion Club, (note the addition of "Discussion" to the name), is really brewing with ideas. The latest idea is to give broadcasts of important news events that have happened during the week via the public-address system every Friday morning during

More Maconians Attending College
Enrollment figures from Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, show more from Macon County attending this institution than ever. Enrollments, by years, have been: 1953, six; 1954, six; 1955, three; 1956, five; 1957, six; 1958, five, and 1959, eight.

Only three counties, Camden, Gates, and Hyde, are not represented in the Woman's College student body this year. Non-North Carolinians number 348 and they come from 25 states and seven foreign countries.

home room period.
She's Back

Elizabeth Ann, who saw such celebrities as Pat Boone and Herb Shriner, has promised a full account of her Chicago experiences for this column next week.

Scenes
Lunch Hour Scenes: . . . the cheerleaders doing gymnastics and chanting a yell about Paul Revere in Mr. Howard's room . . . Spanish Club members hawking chocolate candy . . . students furtively sneaking in the lunch line and then having to go to the back because "the eyes of the teachers are upon you" . . .

Overheard in an FHS classroom: A teacher was just beginning an assignment. A student immediately raised his hand and protested, "It's not fair!"
"What isn't fair?" the teacher asked.
"Whatever you are going to say," the class-weary student replied.

Safety Program Scheduled For Cartoogechaye
A program on safety, featuring two guest speakers, will be given Tuesday night, December 15, at a meeting of the Cartoogechaye P.T.A.

Set to start at 7:30, Miss Esther Wallace's fourth grade will give a Christmas devotional for the meeting.

Safety talks will be given by Frank Ramsey, driver education teacher at Franklin High, and W. W. Sloan, of Nantahala Power and Light Company. Mr. Ramsey will speak on "Safety on Our Highways" and Mr. Sloan's topic will be "Home Safety, With Emphasis on Electrical Wiring".

The Rev. J. C. Lane, president, will preside.

Alternate Your Shoes Daily For Best Wear
Alternating your shoes for daily wear is more economical and the day's rest is good for both feet and shoes, says Miss Julia McIver, clothing specialist for the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service.

Wearing shoes that are out of shape and have run-down heels place a strain on your feet. Heel taps should be replaced before heel coverings are injured. The use of a shoe horn will prevent broken counters. Replace soles before inner layers of the foundation are gone.

Miss McIver says clean leather wears longer. Guard against scuffs and scratches by polishing shoes before wearing. A cream or wax type polish keeps leather shoes soft. Preserve your leather shoes by polishing regularly.

Shaped shoe trees help hold shape of shoes. Shoe bags or boxes protect against dust between wearings.

Mud, water, excessive heat, and dryness, ruin leather, says Miss McIver. Galoshes and rubbers can help keep leather dry and soft.
