Leonard Long On Exercise In Germany

GRAFENWOHR, GERMANY — Army Sgt. Leonard L. Long, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Long, of Franklin, N. C., is participating in a six-week field training exercise with the 3rd Armored Division here.

The exercise is scheduled to be concluded February 10.

The training, which will be climaxed by a mock war pitting armored, artillery, aircraft, and infantry units against realistic aggressor forces, is designed to test the combat readiness of the 3rd Armored Division, a major part of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Sgt. Stewart Takes Part In Airborne Alert In Kentucky

FORT CAMPBELL, KY.—Army Sgt. Charles R. Stewart, son of Mrs. Clara Stewart, of Franklin, participated with the 101st Airborne Division's 502nd Infantry in a special STRAC (Strategic Army Command) alert January 15-29.

The 101st Airborne Division, a major STRAC unit, constantly maintains an immediate readiness force for airborne deployment to any area in the world.

The 25-year-old soldier, a fire team leader in Company D of the division's 502nd Infantry at the fort, entered the Army in March 1955 and was last stationed in Germany.

Stewart was graduated from Central High School, Sylva, in 1953.

THE TROUBLE WITH WOMEN

is that they are hopelessly sentimental (usually) . . . For instance, there's nothing that thrills a woman's heart like being remembered on little days of sentimental value . . . one of these days being Valentine's Day on Saturday, February 14th. Now it's obvious that a woman's sentiment should be humored with a fanciful gift . . . from
