

Duncan, Shopping Center Building, Has Contributed Much To Town's Growth

When Frank B. Duncan moves the offices of his Franklin Realty Company, its only natural that the move is being made into a new shopping center built by himself.

Since he came to Franklin in 1940, Mr. Duncan has never stood still for long. He has been one of the town's foremost leaders in its development in recent years.

Mr. Duncan has been a licensed real estate broker since 1953 and it has been one of his trademarks to improve property and build some addition to the town on it before selling.

The latest example of this is The Franklin Motel, a 40-unit court he built on Palmer Street in 1955 and sold in 1959.

When Mr. Duncan came to Franklin in 1940, he opened a Ford agency in the building which is now home of THE PRESS. Some time later he bought out the English-Mashburn Motor Company on Main Street and moved the agency to its present location, adding new offices, shop, and showroom.

In 1953 he sold out to a partner, Charles Conley, the present owner. Also in that same year, Mr. Duncan was one party in a group that bought out the stock in The Bank of Franklin. This group reorganized the bank and Mr. Duncan was elected president.

At one time he also owned the Franklin Drive-In Theater and he is now co-owner of the Franklin Lodge and Golf Course. The new Palmer Street Shopping Center built by Mr. Duncan is modern and gives added stature to the town, in the tradition of its builder.

Mrs. Parker Marks 89th Birthday With Her Family Sunday

A birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Robert C. Parker on her 89th birthday was held Sunday at the Slagle Memorial Building with approximately 50 of Mrs. Parker's descendants attending.

Five generations of the family were present, along with her four children, Mrs. Ora Harbin, of Westminster, S. C., with whom Mrs. Parker makes her home, Ledger Parker, of Waynesville, and Mrs. Joe Watts and Vester Parker, of Franklin.

OPENING BUSINESS — Davenport's New To Paint, But Not To Knowing Town

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Davenport, owners and operators of The Paint Pot in the new Palmer Street Shopping Center, are new only to the paint business, not to Franklin.

Mr. Davenport has been connected with the Franklin Mineral Products Company here since 1938. The family has been coming to Franklin for visits since 1945 and they moved here permanently last November.

Mr. Davenport is a brother to the late John D. Davenport, founder of Franklin Mineral Products. The family moved here from Sudbury, Mass.

Mr. Davenport is a past president of the Wet Ground Mica Association and still acts as assistant treasurer of the mineral company here.

The Paint Pot, which has its grand opening this week end, is stocked with paint for every need from a house to an artist's canvas. The shop will also carry wall paper, fabrics, and include a paint research and color-matching department.

For the grand opening, the Davenports have special prices on several items and are offering free door gifts. Mrs. Davenport is a graduate of Miss Farmer's School in Boston and is very interested in ceramics, weaving, and home decorating.

They have three sons. Clark, the oldest, is a freshman at the Colorado School of Mines and was an exchange student to Europe; Donald is a sophomore at the Patterson School in Lenoir; and Mike is in kindergarten here.

The Davenports are very interested in schools and young people and are members of St. Agnes Episcopal Church here.
