AFTER YOU HAVE SEEN IT YOU WILL SAY IT WAS WORTH TEN TIMES THE PRICE!

For a mere 19c you can own a very interesting booklet about two very different people . . .

One of them is described by one newspaper as "ONE OF THE STATE'S MOST REMARKABLE PERSONALITIES." The other one is described by another newspaper as "FRIENDLY AND HELPFUL."

(Doesn't that apply to most people? Aren't we all "Friendly and Helpful"?)

One of them stands a chance to make a fortune if elected. The other one stands a chance to lose a fortune if elected.

One of them largely confines his activities concerning mankind to talking. The other one to giving and living by the Golden Rule.

One of them has published an ad in the 12 million circulation Reader's Digest which has been described by a famous writer as "ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL, HUMAN, MOST COLORFUL ADS TO EVER COME OUT OF THE SOUTHLAND." The other one has been described as "ABLE."

A newspaper described one of them as "QUITE RESTRAINED." Another paper has this to say about the other one: "HE IS NO DREAMY IDEALIST AND MAKES A LOT OF SENSE IN SPEAKING OUT OF AN EXPERIENCE AS WIDE AS THE WORLD."

One paper describes one of them as "CONSCIENTIOUS." Two other newspapers call one of them "A PRETTY BIG FELLOW" who "POSSESSES RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS FOR ABOVE THE AVERAGE."

Both men are married for over a quarter-century to the same wives. One of them has three, the other one, two children. Their combined age about 99 years. Their combined total residence in the mountains, 70 years.

You will want to read this 40-page booklet that has been described as one of the most unusual ever printed. Nothing like this has ever been published. You can own it by sending 15c in coin or postage stamps to the Western Carolina News Company, P. O. Box 2985, Asheville, N. C. (4 cent stamp on envelope). If you want to order copies for your friends, you may order ten copies by paying $1.00 instead of $1.50.
