Church Events
The Watauga Baptist Church will hold its Christmas program on Christmas Eve (Saturday night) at 7:30 o'clock at the church. A program will be presented by the beginners, primaries, and juniors and a play will be given by the intermediates and Young People entitled, "Unto the Least." The group will also sing Christmas carols and pantomime the nativity scene.

The Ridgecrest Baptist Church will have its Christmas program also on Christmas Eve, December 24. It will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The beginners and primaries will pantomime the nativity scene and the junior will give a play entitled, "Christmas for Grandpa." The intermediates will present a play entitled "To Hear the Angels Sing."

Club Works

The Watauga Home Demonstration Club met December 16 at the home of Mrs. J. B. Bredie with eight members present. Mrs. Ralph Cassada, the new president, presided. Christmas carols were sung and the members fixed, baskets and boxes of fruit and candy for the elderly and sick in the community. Each member brought a covered dish for lunch. After lunch, some of the members made cookies for the "Testing Tea" held Saturday at the Agricultural Building.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Louise Cochran.

Yule Event

The Ridgecrest Home Demonstration Club held its Christmas meeting Tuesday, December 13, at the home of Mrs. Jess Thompson with 11 members present and one new member, Miss Dolly Thompson. The morning part of the program was a business meeting. The devotional was given by Mrs. Jeter Higdon and Mrs. Elsie Smith led in prayer. The group discussed the new cookbook published by the county clubs. Mrs. Jeter Higdon, gave a garden report and Mrs. John Smith gave a book report.
The group decided to meet at Mrs. Jess Thompson's again on Friday night before Christmas to prepare fruit baskets for shut-ins.
