

CAMERON

We are all glad to have Rev. L. H. Joyner and Mrs. Joyner back again. They with their interesting family are a helpful addition to our town.

Mr. E. Frank Kelly, of Baltimore, passed through town last week for a few days visit to his old home at Union, where once flourished Union Home School, taught by his father, Prof. J. E. Kelly.

Misses Sacksie Muse, Lula McPherson and Miss Ethel Dalrymple, of Carthage, were shopping in Raleigh last week.

The Cameron people gave Mr. J. R. Riddell and sister, Miss Bettie, a severe pounding last week.

Misses Fay and Mamie Matthews of White Hill, stopped over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Irvin, returning from a visit to relatives at Vass.

Mrs. W. O. Fraiser, of Baird, Texas, arrived Sunday for a visit to relatives in Moore and adjoining counties, while in Cameron, she will be the house guest of Mrs. E. M. Borst.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDugald and Mrs. T. O. McEwen, came up from Hamlet Sunday afternoon to call upon Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Talty.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gaddy at Sanford.

Mrs. Addie Graham and daughter Miss Bertie, have rented rooms in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Irvin on McPherson street.

Mrs. Margaret McLean on Route 2, returned Tuesday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ayer, of Oak City.

Mr. John McLaughlin and sister, Miss Cassie, spent Sunday with the Misses Arnold.

Miss Bettie McLaughlin, of Carthage, who came down Saturday to attend the Teachers meeting, spending the night with Miss Ada McNeill.

Miss Lula McPherson will leave at an early date to visit her sister, Mrs. W. G. Ferguson at Rose Claire, Ill.

Mr. R. E. Bryan on Route 2, has purchased from Mr. J. E. Eads, the attractive home on Route 1, that once belonged to Mr. Ed. Thompson, of Vass. When it comes to dealing in real estate Mr. Bryant is equal to Mr. H. A. Matthews.

Mrs. Georgie Matthews made a business trip to Sanford last week.

Miss Lady Mary Loving, who accepted a position in the postoffice at Pinehurst left Monday to begin her work.

Misses Mabel Muse and Effie Gilchrist, who are teaching at Oak Grove, came home for the week-end.

Mr. John Cox who lived in the neighborhood, of White Hill Church, died recently from an attack of acute indigestion. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

There was a large crowd at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning to hear Rev. M. D. McNeill who preached a fine sermon from the subject "Companionship with Christ."

Miss Kate Harrington left last week for Charlotte, where she is located at trained nurse.

Mr. Edgar Petty, son of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Petty, has been appointed to the position of auditor for the Interstate Commerce Commission for U. S. Government work. Mr. Petty passed successfully the required examination and goes to Chattanooga, Tenn., for work at a salary of $4,000 per year.

Speaking of pounding, Mrs. Addie Allen on Route 2, pounded the correspondent with several pounds of fresh pork sausage last week that are greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Mr. J. C. Hardy and Miss Lima Doss were quietly married at the home of the bride in Cameron on Thursday evening, Dec. 2nd, Rev. L. H. Joyner officiating. Mr. Hardy has recently purchased the place known as the "John Muse home," at Walnut Grove; and where, he with Mrs. Hardy, will make their home. Since moving to Cameron last Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Doss have given two of their daughters in marriage.

Mr. J. J. Irvin has been all smiles since eating that mee-noo, Thanksgiving day.

Miss Lula McPherson was a guest last week at a birthday party given in honor of Miss Ethel Dalrymple, of Carthage. She was also present at a reception of a latter date given by her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Monroe, of Sanford, in honor of Mrs. Bickett.

Miss Myrtle Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, who for the past few years had been engaged in war work, at Portsmouth, Va., was married on Nov. 27th, to Mr. H. E. Spiers, of Portsmouth, Va. The marriage took place in the study of the pastor of the first Presbyterian Church, of Portsmouth, in the presence of a few friends. The groom is a machinist in Portsmouth. They are now housekeeping at 425 Armstrong street. Mrs. Spiers is remembered in Cameron as a beautiful and loveable girl. We wish her happiness, peace and prosperity throughout her married life.

REDUCED PRICES

We have cut prices in order to meet the low price of Cotton and Tobacco, on

Wagons, Buggies, Team and Buggy Harness, Wire Fencing, Farm Implements, Roofing, Paints, Oils, Auto Accessories, and many other staple articles too numerous to mention

Reductions range from 10 to 25 percent. We've got what you want. Come to see us and be convinced.

LEE HARDWARE CO.
SANFORD, N. C.

SANTA CLAUS

Has made our store his headquarters and we want you to make it

HOLIDAY SPECIALS

YOUR HEADQUARTERS and it is going to be a regular Children's Play Ground

We want them to come and take possession

We have a large assortment of useful Gifts

In Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Suspenders, Stationery, Toilet Goods, Jewelry, China, Glass and Crockery Ware, Dolls, Toys, Wheel Goods, Games, Books, and many things to amuse the children. Full line of Apples, Oranges, Raisins, Nuts, Candy, Etc.

Big Reduction in Dry Goods

Notions, Shoes, Hats, Caps. See our special Bargain Counters. Full line Fancy Groceries at reasonable prices. We invite you to come early and make your selections while the stock is complete. Let's all pull together for a Merry Christmas.

McDONALD BROS.

CAMERON,

NORTH CAROLINA