From Upper H

Christmas has passed off Upper Hoke. No accidents everybody seemed to enjoy the fullest extent.

Mr. D. K. Blue, register of is spending the holidays with Mr. J. P. Blue, on route two

We are having some very these days, and it's playing out-door work, and our road in bad shape from the cold and steady travel.

Mr. A. W. McNeill, who is in a ship yard in Virginia three years is home for the McNeill is looking well and is going back again.

We are sorry to report the C. A. McNeill, of near Cypress we understand he is improving

We would be glad to see settled down so we would things would be for the Everything is so congested to figure ahead. The farmer whether to plant a large one, but it seems that a and cotton acreage would But will the farmers do this will think the other fellow much and it will be a good to put in about the same had this year. What then comes, too much of every goes the prices. But if goods supplies will only come because price why won't there be in ten cent cotton and tobacco as their was in 30 cent cotton tobacco with everything to buy at the highest price few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Simpson county, who has been visiting Simpson, have returned home son's first trip to Hoke, and visitors to Upper Hoke he pleased with the general everything.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrisson spending a couple of months in Upper Hoke have returned in High Point.

Mr. J. Hector Smith was in Raleigh, Fayetteville last week, he is connected with Bragg land appraisership.

There was a box supper given at Hopewell, quite a nice taken in, and Mr. D. McGill prize for being the ugliest Smith for being the ugliest mie McGill for being the good set of judges.

Hopeing one and all a prosperous New Year and to be as they may, that all best, in the long run.

There is one thing that to-the-farm movement of thing else, and that is to start closing down.
