MICKIE SAYS:

Mr. A. Cameron who has been on the sick list for the past several week went to the Charlotte Hospital Tuesday for a rest.

The Medical Society of North Carolina, will meet this year at Pinehurst, on April 26, 27 and 28. The Health Officers Association will also meet at the same place on April 25. No doubt the session will be well attended, as Pinehurst is an ideal place for just such meetings.

In another part of this paper Neill McKeithen announces that he has opened a market where can be found at all times fresh meats, fish and oysters of the finest kind. Encourage the new market instead of going out of town.

Rev. A. O. Keller, pastor of the Aberdeen Baptist Church, occupied the pulpit here last Sunday and preached to an appreciative audience. The next preaching will be held the third Sunday of the month. These services will become regular and Sunday School will be held each Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Give this your attention and attend the services and Sunday School.
