

on several occasions called at the great advantage of a building association for this town and there is nothing better for a to advertise it. Let us all get people interested. It will be to the town. It will help Why not call a meeting of people and talk it over. It is a fine venture. Who will make meeting of the Moore County American Red Cross will be held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Southern Pines. A woman will speak. The public is invited.

LOST

J. & D. N. S. complete with cover, all new. Return to Moore County and be suitably rewarded. N. C. jn212t

INSURANCE see L. M. McKEITHEN North Carolina

Representing the INSURANCE COMPANY

's Garage Vass, N. C.

and Supplies, Oils, Tires, Accessories

Service

RTMENT

market and requirements

PRICES

- $1.25 each
- $1.25 each
- 1.00 each
- 2.00 to 1.50 each
- 3.98 pair
- heel 5.98 pair
- 2.98 pair
- 5.75 each
- 55c to 35c per pair

ts, we can fit and 6.00 pair and Dress Goods all bought at the benefit. Come in Rest Room upstairs.

eaner, buy one

ts

NT STORE

ines

00 P. M. Sat. 9:30

PERSONALS

Mr. George W. McNeill, attorney-at-law, of Carthage, was here on business last Monday.

Mr. R. G. Lee, of Greensboro, spent a portion of this week with his friend Mr. Henry A. Matthews.

Mr. H. C. Bowden, who represents the Virginia Hardware Company, was here this week on business for the firm.

Mr. Robert L. Burns, of Carthage, attorney to the Moore County Commissioners was in town last Monday on business.

Mr. W. A. Thomas, of Siler City, whilst in Vass Wednesday on business, stopped in the Pilot office and became a subscriber.

Miss Bertha Proffitt, home demonstration agent for Moore county, was a pleasant visitor on Tuesday at the Pilot office.

Mr. W. L. Peace, travelling representative of The Raleigh Times, was in town Friday and made the Pilot a business call.

Mr. Daniel Smith, Sr., who has been confined to his home for the past several weeks we are glad to note is able to be about again.

Misses Carrie Westcott and Eulo Griffin had as their dinner guest last Sunday Miss Bertha Sanford at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Matthews.

Messrs. W. M. Harding and A. E. Atherton, of New Rochelle, N. Y., who are here on a month's gunning trip had dinner with friends at Pinehurst last Sunday.

Mr. W. G. Ebey, the Hamlet Bard, general chairman of the American Train Dispatchers Association, who has been down but not out, with a bad case of the "grip" is back at his old post.

Mr. C. L. Tyson has donated to the Vass Graded School a seven volume set of the History of the World War.

Miss Bertha Proffitt, the Home Demonstration Agent for Moore county, is conducting a campaign amongst the school girls to promote better health by making better bread. She visited our school on Tuesday and gave instructions and distributed literature describing the contest, which started on January 17, and will close on March 19. A number of valuable prizes will be offered to those making the best biscuits. Miss Proffitt is doing great work.

MICKIE SAYS:

OUTSIDE! GWAN! BEAT IT BEFORE I LOSE CONTROL OF MYSELF, ER YOU'LL BE TALKING TO YOUR FRIENDS WITH A LIL WEEJA BOARD! ANYBODY WHO HAS TH' CRUST TO COME IN 'N STOP THE HOME PAPER BECUZ THEY'RE SUBSCRIBING TO A PAPER FROM A NEARBY CITY IS NUTHIN' BUT A POOR PETRIFIED PRUNE 'N IT'D SURE BE A PLEASURE TO MUSS UP TH' OFFIS WITH YA!

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels in an address before 1000 naval cadets at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., last Monday night told the young officers not to be alarmed at tails that battleships soon would be supplanted by air-fighting craft. He also said "I have made a number of trips to Annapolis but this will be my last. I will be glad to retire from public life and get back to the editorial chair and brush up in newspaper writing, and there is no doubt that I will have much to write about."

Lakeview

Mr. W. M. Gallant, of Raleigh, was a business visitor in our town Monday.

Miss Maude Blue spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. R. B. Britt, in Lumberton, N. C.

Mr. Russell Bickford, of Boston, was here Monday on business.

Mrs. P. L. Gardner spent last week in Raleigh with her daughters, Mrs. R. Q. Andrews and Miss Frances Gardner who is in school there.

Mr. W. C. Hendren in spending this week in Salisbury, N. C., taking a special course in the study of tractors.

Mrs. M. N. Blue and son, of Fayetteville, spent the week-end with Mrs. Blue's sister, Mrs. R. L. Oldham, who accompanied them home Tuesday.

TO MAKE GOOD PASTRY

is every housekeeper's ambition. Start right by using the best materials. The best shortening, the best baking powder and, above all, the best flour. Make sure of it by ordering a sack of which expert pastry bakers say has no equal. Then you'll be on the right road to good pastry making and good bread baking as well.

ROSE MAID SELF RISING

SEABOARD MILLING COMPANY,

Sanford, N. C.

Jordan's Barber Shop VASS

Hair Cutting, Massaging, Shampooing
Special attention given to children's hair
Good Chairs Prompt Service

An Advertisement in THE PILOT reaches a people that no other paper does. Try one.

REWARD

$100.00

Will be paid to any party or parties for conviction or evidence leading to conviction of parties who entered the store of Vass Mercantile Co., Vass, N. C. on the night of January 31, 1921 and stole therefrom several articles of merchandise consisting of Ralston Shoes, Brown Shoe Co, Shoes, Lion Brand Shoes, Khaki Pants, Haynes Union Suits, Stevens Single Barrell Breech Loading Shot Guns, Valley Forge Pocket Knives, Hosiery and Small Hand Grip, Big Winston and Riverside Brand Overalls, and various other articles.

Any party capturing and furnishing evidence for conviction of the above parties will be paid the above reward. Any evidence secured wire or phone Vass Mercantile Co. VASS, N. C.