What Are You Here For?

Written especially for the Pilot
BY W. G. EBEL

If you've never made another have a happier time in life;
If you've never helped a brother through his struggle and his strife,
If you've never been a comfort to the weary and the worn;
Will you tell us what you're here for in this lovely land of morn.

If you've never made the pathway of some neighbor glow with sun,
If you've never brought a bubble to some fellow's heart with fun,
If you've never cheered a toiler that you tried to help along;
Will you tell us what you're here for in this lovely land of song.

If you've never made a comrade feel the world a sweet place,
Because you lived within it, and served it with your grace,
If you've never heard a woman or a little child proclaim
A blessing on your county---your'e a poor hand at the game.

An interesting letter from Upper Hoke was received to late for publication this week. It will appear in our next issue.

It is not often that a person receives polite treatment at the hands of railroad officials. They are always ready to knock, but there are exceptions. If all employees were as polite and accommodating as Mr. Henry A. Boist, agent, and his assistant, Mr. A. G. Edwards, the railroads would never have any trouble with the public. These two gentlemen are obliging to a fault, and we know of cases where they have gone out of their way to do a favor.

Next Sunday being the first Sunday in February there will be services in the Methodist Episcopal Church in the morning at 11 o'clock and at night at 7 o'clock. Rev. L. H. Joyner, the pastor, will occupy the pulpit at both services, and you are expected to be present. Don't fail to attend Sunday School at 10 o'clock.

"Chairman Volstead is open for suggestions to make his law bullet-proof."
Tut, tut. Has somebody been shooting holes in the original measure?

Mr. W. H. McNeill is in Atlanta and other Southern points in the interest of his work.
