Don't Forget the Date

The Moore County Better Biscuit Contest will be held at Carthage March 26, instead of March 19, as first announced.

Let me urge every woman in Moore county to take advantage of this opportunity to win a Three-burner Puritan Oil Cook Stove, a Gift Set of Pyrex Oven Ware, a pair of Household Scales or a sack of Pillsbury Flour.

The school girls also have a contest on that day and you can encourage them in their work by coming out to see what they can do.

All are asked to bring their biscuits to the Court House by 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon, of Raleigh, and other interesting speakers will be present. Don't forget the date, March 26.

BERTHA PROFFITT,
County Home Demonstration Agent.

Before You Move

We are now approaching the season when a desire to pick up, bag and baggage, and move to another locality seizes upon a fellow stronger than at any other time of the year. The grass is turning a deeper green, trees are preparing to put out their leaves, there's a feel of summer days in the air—and we get the idea that we can do better somewhere else than in Vass.

We personally regret to see any good citizen leave this locality. But of course their going is a matter of their own concern, and we are not inclined to tell them their business. But if you feel the desire to change surroundings, take everything into consideration before you start. Don't go merely because you can buy this or that a cent or two cheaper on the dollar. Don't go because higher wages are offered than you are getting here—there is probably a higher house rent, too, or higher taxes, than you pay here. And above all, especially if you have children, look into the educational advantages offered by the new location and compare them with those you have here. You owe it to your family more than to yourself to be absolutely sure of your ground before you take them into a strange community, where they possibly never can acquire neighbors like you now have, neighbors who are worth more than their weight in gold.

Don't let the spring moving germ cause you to do something in haste you will regret the remainder of your life. It's better to be half satisfied here than wholly sorry somewhere else.
