

Devoted to the Upbuilding of Vass and Its Surrounding Country

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00

VASS, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1921

PRICE FIVE CENTS

CAMERON

Rev. Letcher Smith of Fayetteville spent Saturday night with Rev. M. D. McNeill and Mrs. McNeill.

Rev. W. H. H. Lawhon spent Sunday night with Rev. J. W. Hartsell and Mrs. Hartell.

Miss Burdette Joyner came home last week from Louisburg College where she is teacher of art, bringing as her guest, her friend, Miss Esther Hansbury of Boone, who is teacher in music at Louisburg College.

Miss Bonnie Muse spent the week end with Miss Vera Wooten at Sanford.

Miss Ernestine Matthews called Sunday on Miss Jacksie Muse.

Mr. J. A. Phillips who rented a dewberry field at Carthage shipped 8 crates from that point Saturday and on Monday shipped five crates from Cameron.

Prof. Scott, principal of Roberdell school, with Mrs. Scott, called last week to see Misses Bonnie and Minnie Muse.

Mr. H. D. Talley left Tuesday for Fort Green, Fla., accompanying his niece, Miss Myrtle McDugald, a student of Peace Institute.

Miss Rosa McCollom of Eureka came over Saturday for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Dermott, and Misses Rachel and Nannie Gilchrist.

Mrs. Mag Cameron and daughter, Miss Sallie, on Route one were callers at Mrs. Janie Muse last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith of Vass were callers, Sunday afternoon, at Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLeans.

Mrs. E. A. McFayden, her daughter Mrs. Janie Muse, and daughters, Misses Mamie Neal and Bonnie Muse, with Miss Bettie Riddell and W. A. Muse motored to Mr. Tom Camerons on Carthage Route one, to be present at a picnic given in honor of Mrs. Mag Cameron, who is in her eighty second year. Mrs. McFayden is eighty-nine. The Cameron home, the place of the picnic, was the girlhood home of Mrs. McFayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Phillips of Goldston, came down last week to attend the sale at the home of the late J. D. McLaurin. While here they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hartsell.

Mr. J. A. Phillips bought a hive of bees at the McLaurin sale and came home to get a conveyance to bring them home, when he returned the bees had swarmed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec McPherson and little son Hugh, Miss Annie Pierce of Borderlee spent a day of last week in Raeford.

Farmers Unions have been organized at Moore Hill, Cranes Creek and Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy had a family reunion Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alsa Thompson and children on Route one, Mr. Glyde Gaddy and son of Sanford, Miss Myrtle, Messrs. John and Hampton and little Miss Lula, home children.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hendricks of
(Continued on page 7)

VASS ROUTE ONE

Miss Margaret McLeod, who has been principal of the Efland School has returned home.

Mrs. Fred Bowen of Eastwood spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. D. Ferguson.

Miss Caroline Rankin of Greensboro has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Z. V. Blue.

Miss Katherine Blue of Raleigh spent the week end with home folks last week.

Prof. J. D. McLeod, of Jackson Springs is now at home.

Miss Laura Blue of Raleigh visited her people in this community last week.

Misses Mary and Margaret Kelly have returned from an extended visit to Mrs. Blue's daughter, Mrs. R. B. Britt of Lumberton.

The Eureka Community Club held its second meeting last Thursday night. A full attendance was present and much enthusiasm was shown. The club will meet again on the night of June 1st. Several important topics are to be discussed by able speakers.

WEST END

"The Busy Workers" of the M. E. Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at Thaggard's pond Wednesday.

Mr. Joe Donaldson and Misses Lucile Eiford, Cora Belle Donaldson and Pauline Jackson, spent the week-end visiting relatives in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pulliam, of Ether were visitors here Saturday.

Among the visitors in town Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bruton, of Eagle Spring; Messrs. Will and George Clarke, of Jackson Springs; Misses Flora and Jennie Frye, of Carehage Route.

Miss Dorthy Monroe is spending a while here with Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

A large number of the people of Jackson Springs came over to the base ball game here Saturday played between Biscoe and West End. West End, of course, won. The West End ball team has joined the Moore County League and expects to put out a fast team this year.

A large crowd of Methodist members from here went to Aberdeen Sunday to the rally at the Methodist church.

Mr. Vivian Tucker went to Troy Sunday to see his father, who is sick.

Some of the farmers around here are through setting out tobacco.

LAKEVIEW'S BIG OPENING

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather Tuesday Lakeview's opening night was attended by a large crowd, who enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. Music was furnished by an excellent orchestra from Raleigh and the pavillion was at all times crowded with dancers. The name of Harrington, the manager, is enough to insure it one of the best seasons Lakeview has ever had. Nothing will be allowed to mar the pleasure of anyone.

JACKSON SPRINGS

At a meeting of the stock holders of the Bank of Jackson Springs on Wednesday afternoon the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Geo. R. Ross, Dr. A. A. McDonald, J. T. Ellis, E. J. Woodley, J. E. Jordan, Ira A. Stuart and Chas. Diling. This institution began business at the beginning of the financial depression, but has prospered beyond our expectations.

Mr. E. T. Ammons and family of Rowland have been here for the past several days. Mr. Ammons is fast getting the Jackson Springs hotel in tip top shape for the opening on Saturday, May 28th. The hotel management will be under Messers Geo. R. Ross and E. J. Ammons. The hotel annex will be under the management of Mrs. Geo. P. Markham as a family style boardin house. A five piece orchestra will play for concerts and dances on Tuesday and Saturday nights of each week during the season. The hotel annex is now open for guests.

After much suffering for the past few weeks, Lois Orene, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Poole died on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Lois was 1 year, 10 months and 29 days old. She was a bright and attractive child with a sweet and cheerful disposition. Devoted parents, relatives, friends, the family physician and nurse done all they could, but her suffering ended quite and peacefully. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Parker of Biscoe, the parent's pastor, at the Marcus Methodist Church, and interment was made in the church cemetery where a large number of the little one's friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to the departed one. Mother and little son are doing well.

Miss Kate Ray, an aged lady, is very ill.

Mrs. Neal Patterson who came home from the Hamlet Hospital several days ago after an operation is very sick at her home on Route two.

Mr. Chas. Diling, who fractured a bone in his leg some time ago while splitting wood is able to be at work again on his farm.

Several from here went over to West End on Saturday afternoon to see the Biscoe-West End ball game. The score being 5-4 in favor of West End.

Mrs. R. B. Norris, Jr., of Charlotte is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Diling. She is accompanied by her cousin, Miss Johnson of Gastonia.

Mr. W. Edgar Graham of Elon College is at home for the summer.

A small child of Jim Ferry, colored, who resides a few miles southwest of here was found dead in a branch near the house Thursday. She had spasms and it is thought she wandered away from the house to the branch and fell in when having a spasm and was drowned.

CAMERON ROUTE ONE

Miss Luda Boaz of Cameron was the dinner guest of Miss Mollie Reed Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson of Aberdeen were the guests Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Keith spent Sunday in Southern Pines with Mrs. R. E. Patterson.

Mr. Alton Shaw attended the commencement of Lemon Springs school last week.

Miss Squice of Virginia is the guest this week of Mrs. Frank Cameron.

The first dewberry shipment of the season in this section went forward Tuesday.

Mr. Carl Thompson attended the closing exercises of Lemon Springs school last week.

Mr. Currie Shaw and sister, Miss Ethel were the dinner guests Sunday of their sister, Mrs. Turner Cameron of Cameron Route three.

Mrs. F. Atkins has returned home after a visit to her people in Surry County.

Mr. Will Graham and sisters Misses Kate and Eva, attended commencement at Lemon Springs last week.

Mrs. Monroe Moffit returned to her home in Sanford last Thursday after having spent sometime with her people here.

Dr. Ernest Harbour of Cameron was the dinner guest Sunday of Miss Mollie Reed.

Miss Hattie Eades, of Cameron, spent Sunday with Misses Evelyn and Mildred Thomas.

Mr. R. E. Patterson of Southern Pines, spent last week end with relatives here.

Mr. James A. Shaw spent last Sunday with relatives near Carthage.

The men of this community met at Moore Hill School House last Friday evening to organize a Farmers Union under the leadership of Mr. Southern of Chatam County.

WELL ATTENDED MEETING

The large reception room in Hotel Vass, was well filled with members of the Building and Loan Association last Monday night for the first transaction of business. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Daniel A. McLaughlin and reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Mr. W. D. Matthews, after which the bye-laws and constitution were read and adopted. This now places the corporation on a good footing for all future work. Several new members were admitted to membership with the promise of others to join later on, and in the very near future the association will be one of the strongest institutions in the state. Let the good work continue and thereby Vass will grow.

A dentist will be in Vass next week to practice his profession and can be found in the office of Dr. Rosser.

The
STORE

?

ARE LOW-

anywhere
we don't who knows t so much ney as you

Store

ing that is class store backs our

Y US

E CO.

C.