MIGHT TRY IT HERE

Progressive farmers in New Jersey have decided upon campaigns of direct newspaper advertising to sell their produce fresh from the farms. Some farmers have banded in groups for co-operative advertising. Others will work individually toward an elimination of profiteering middle men. The farmers who advertise their produce will get a little more money for it, and the consumer will get a fresher article. What the farmers of New Jersey are doing the farmers right around Vass can do. By inexpensive, honest advertising in their home-town papers they can reach the eyes and pocketbooks of the consumers, and the parcels post will do the rest. The advertising costs but a few cents when you compare the big slice the middleman takes off of your profit. We know the plan has proven successful in New Jersey, and we are confident it can be done just as successfully here if some of our rural friends will only give it a try-out.

WILL MEET TONIGHT

The flourishing Community Club of this town, will hold its next meeting tonight, June 3rd, in the large reception room of the Hotel Vass, at 8 o'clock. The social feature of the club will be thoroughly carried out and the committee having the affair in charge are Mrs. Kate Brooks, Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. Leonard J. Bliss and Miss Myrtle Leslie. A special and interesting program has been prepared for the occasion and several questions touching on the subject will be thoroughly gone over, and in order to make the meeting a success a full attendance is desired by the ladies of the committee. So don't fail to attend tonight at Hotel Vass.

GIVE THIS YOUR ATTENTION

Next Saturday, June 4th, is the first Saturday in the month, and all dues of members of the Vass Building and Loan Association fall due on that date and must be paid to the treasurer, Mr. W. D. Matthews, or his deputy. The old barber shop has been rented for an office for the association and the treasurer can be found there to receive all moneys due by members. Don't fail to deposit your amount on shares of stock that you subscribed to. Keep this in mind, and try to get some one interested to become a member and thereby help to make it one of the strongest organizations in this section of the State.

MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Aberdeen, N. C.—N. A. Blue, aged 70, one of the best known citizens in Hoke and Moore counties, was struck and instantly killed by the engine of the Seaboard southbound passenger train No. 11 at 7 o'clock Wednesday night. Mr. Blue had started across the track about a half a mile from the station here when the train bore down upon him unawares. He was a pioneer resident in this section, having been born here, and having spent his entire life here. Surviving him are his wife and several children.

We may be able to keep our hands off of Europe, but for a long time some of our soldiers will have to keep their feet over there.

Mother Hubbard dresses have come in vogue again by the appearance of one on our streets here last Saturday, and we confess it was very befitting to the young lady whom it bedecked.
