

he sold at eighteen fifteen later on. And the whole story. No what the future will whether you believe it speculator who is not burns his fingers as the farmer does in buying cotton, and some at deal worse.

CITY

At time the Caribnton connected with the and power lines in The work of putting pole line from the orthage is now under power plant at the out ready to turn on t, and when the pole ished, which will be middle of October, the systems will be fortibig reserve of power new place. Because plus Siler City has in but the available ill handle the new ell as the older ones. on Moore county will the best served elecany counties in the tes, and probably no argely rural will be so d as Moore.

John McQueen has the plants that Mr. developed he has gone y everything and put e modern condition, he new current comes be to a plant that is w throughout. Uny the streams have ant in their water supthe summer has not atisfactory to the pane lines as is desired, could not be helped. dams filling up with he fall rains, and the r from Caribnton, a tion will have been nd it is reasonable to at this condition will ment. Of course the ill grow, and the depower and light will and the electric service to keep up with it. But een will not be caught ll the facilities that quired, for he is lookto the future and his made for such expannecessary to prepare ig population that is by all the development v forecast by the presivities.

trons of the company patience a little while e prospects are wholly ry, and it is but a short l everything that can in the way of electric ill be at the command towns of the county.

Fresh Meats, Pork, Sausage, Cheese, Butter, Eggs

AT

NEILL M. McKEITHAN'S

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS

Mr. J. R. Thomas came home for the week-end.

The key to success just fits the school house door.

Mr. J. J. Parker came home from Rockingham Wednesday.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, of Niagara, was in town Sunday.

Maybe they call a store the "Busy Bee" because they are in hope the customers will come in swarms.

Mr. T. K. Gunter and family spent last Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. B. Johnson, of Lemon Springs.

Women haven't quite reached normalcy in dress—but they are in the outskirts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Oldham and children spent the week-end with relatives in Chatham county.

Sometimes the greatest hero in a moving picture show is the man who can sit through it.

Mr. Frank Speight, of Hamlet, was the week-end guest of Mr. J. Franklin Byrd.

It is the woman with the new hat who never complains because the sermon is long drawn out.

Miss Glennie Keith passed two days of last week with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Atkinson, of Southern Pines.

Tinkering is always a dangerous proposition, and especially so when men get to tinkering with the tariff.

Mr. Rich, of Lillington, was the guest of Dr. M. B. Matthews Friday evening.

From the looks of things they'd better have a disarmament in West Virginia first.

Miss Georgia Conley, our very efficient primary teacher, from Sevier, came Saturday evening.

In Russia sugar is selling at $2,000 a pound. That's about what they were trying to get us to pay for it when the war ended.

Mr. Lacy Fry, of Midville, Ga., visited his sister, Mrs. Stacy Brewer, Sunday.

A friend writes in to know "what is the best thing to take on a short trip to Niagara Falls?" The answer is "a long pocket-book."

Miss Lillian Smith passed Wednesday with her grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Ann Smith, in upper Hoke.

One thing about selling soft drinks these days—a fellow can do that and still have lots of time to devote to other business.

Mrs. J. H. Oldham, Miss Margaret Keith and Mr. J. A. Keith made a trip to Sanford Wednesday.

Another drawback about the summer bathing suit is that it isn't hardly heavy enough for winter underwear.

The Vass Graded School opened Monday with an enrollment of something like 200.

A pencil maker recently died and left a fortune of a million dollars. But he couldn't have done it if there had been a law against borrowing.

Miss Mamie Smith has again taken up her work as teacher in the school here.

Maybe the reason some women stay single is because they're afraid they won't get a better man than the neighbor woman got.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oldham accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Caviness, of Lakeview, to White Hill Sunday.

It has about gotten so since the eighteenth amendment went into effect that the man who cleans out a cellar has to furnish bond.

Miss Ethel Coats arrived last Friday from her home in Coats to resume her work as music teacher in the Vass graded school.

Now comes a federal probe of the so-called biscuit trust. We presume it will show that the men behind it were only trying to raise the dough.

No; the Pilot office isn't "the man who buys chickens for the hotel." Always like to accommodate, but that is a bit out of our line.

A favorite expression around Vass these Sunday afternoons is: "Slow down, Henry, my hair is flying in every direction."

Mrs. A. M. Cameron and daughter, Marion, are visiting Mrs. Cameron's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. McKoy, of Buies Creek.

There's still a lot in this world to hope for. Maybe some day we will get to hear a soloist who can make us understand what she is trying to sing.

Rev. M. D. McNeill, of Cameron, and Mr. W. D. Smith left Wednesday for "The Church in the Pines," near Laurel Hill, where they are attending Presbytery.

Rev. J. W. Bradley, of Durham, spent Tuesday night in town on his way to Raeford. Mr. Bradley is a former pastor of Johnson Grove

MONUMENTS & TOMBSTONES

If you are interested in Monuments or Tombstones, Write Rockingham Marble Works ROCKINGHAM, N. C.

—Or See—

D. CARL FRY, Carthage, N. C.

A large and well selected stock of monuments, tablets, etc. on hand at all times. Quality, work and prices guaranteed. Equipped with latest pneumatic machinery driven by electricity.

Winter Coming! YES

SHOES MENDED? No

WHY NOT? BECAUSE

You did not bring them to

Vass Electric Shoe Shop

A. G. EDWARDS, Prop'r

PRICES—Half Soles - $1.00
Rubber Heels - .50

church and is pleasantly remembered by the people of Vass.

Mr. E. B. Thompson has moved his family to the old Thompson home place on Cameron Route 1, and Mr. Alsie Thompson and family now live on the place formerly owned by E. B. Thompson.

The Community Fair to be held in Vass on October 11th, is the first undertaking of its kind ever attempted by the people of this section, so let's not make a failure, but a complete success of our first attempt. Do your part.

The clothes line is the dividing line between the sexes, but it is fast disappearing.

Smith's Garage Vass, N. C.

Repairing and Supplies, Oils, Gasoline, Accessories
Auto Service

HARRY R. IHRIE

Lawyer

CARTHAGE, -:- N. C.

In Southern Pines

Every Wednesday and Thursday at Windham's Real Estate office

Furniture and House Furnishings

EDISON PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

CASH OR TERMS

LEE FURNITURE COMPANY

Sanford, North Carolina

UPHOLSTERING & TOP WORK

We are prepared to do your Auto Top and Upholstering work in the best manner and at reasonable prices.

OLD FURNITURE re-upholstered and made good as new

Expert workmanship
Satisfaction Guaranteed

JENNINGS MOTOR CO., Inc.

Carthage, N. C.

Phone 56