Court at Carthage next week.
Community Club meets tonight.
We are heartily in favor of a bob-tailed navy if it will curtail expense.
Mr. W. B. Graham was in Ruffin,
S. C., this week.
Maybe the reason the mule kicks is because its owner won't buy a tractor.
Miss Mayme McKeithan, of Biscoe, visited relatives here Sunday.
Mr. Z. O. Blue, of the Eureka section, was in town Wednesday.
Miss Ethel Coats spent Sunday in Raleigh.

What's the matter with a twentieth amendment forbidding whine.

guest of relatives in town.

The man who finishes last in a political race always has an empty purse he can save as a souvenir.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Give the average woman half a chance and she'll start right in to boast of her ailments.

Mr. W. D. Smith left Tuesday for Charlotte where he will spend a few days.

Maybe the reason Christmas comes slowly to Vass children is because they don't have to pay rent.

Mr. Gordon Thomas came home from Raleigh, Saturday, for a short stay.

An Ohio editor proposes a "Tell the Truth Week." He must be trying to start another war.

Mr. John A. McLeod, of the Eureka section, was in Vass Wednesday with a load of cotton.

Crookedness never pays in the long run. Look how they put the corkscrew out of business.

Mr. A. M. Cameron attended the Shriners' meeting in Charlotte Tuesday.

The trouble with a lot of wives is that if you'd give them enough rope they'd skip with it.

The moving pictures shown at the school building Tuesday evening were real entertaining, and drew the largest crowd that has yet attended.

The ear is a wonderful organ, but how many people can distinguish between celery eating and stepping on a basket.

Miss Elizabeth Fry, of Red Springs, a former Moore county lady, has been elected County Welfare Officer for Robeson county. Miss Fry is a sister of Mrs. Stacy Brewer of this place.

On Friday evening, December 16th, at 7:30 o'clock, the members of Miss Ethel Coats' music class will give a recital at the Vass graded school auditorium. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

Smith spent a night of last week with Miss Eva Graham on Cameron Route 1.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

The Vass Community Club will meet at the graded school building Friday night, December 9th, at seven o'clock.

Beautifying Vass is the topic for the evening, and the committee in charge has arranged a special program dealing with that subject. Also a short program will be rendered by the music department of the school.

If you are at all interested in making your town more beautiful let it be known by being present.

Your mail orders for merchandise will be promptly and satisfactorily filled at Wainer & Ginsburg's, Carthage, N. C. Adv. Phone 56

Sheriff D. Al. Blue, who is rated as a pretty intelligent farmer, says:

"I have used many brands of fertilizer, but never obtained the results that I have with yours. I am so well satisfied that I expect to use the Blue Fertilizer exclusively in the future." D. AL. BLUE.

Sheriff Blue cultivates a big acreage and his crops show that he got results. But remember that the
