By a ruling of the supreme court of Ohio political literature destined to injure a candidate's reputation or to put him in a false light is a violation of the law. The court refers to scurrilous letters and circulars sent out during campaigns, which do not bear the name of the author. The law is a good one, and it ought to be in effect in every state in the union. Occasionally some citizen will send in an anonymous communication, a letter the writer is too cowardly to sign his or her name to, and we toss it in the waste basket. The people who write such letters to the newspapers and expect them printed are the same kind who circulate character-destroying literature during a political campaign. The Ohio law is a mighty good law if it will curb this form of nuisance. And since it has been upheld by the highest tribunal in the state we see no reason why every other state in the union should not hasten to adopt it immediately.

 MADE JUDGE.

Monroe, N. C., Feb. 18, 1922.
 Mr. A. M. Stack,
 City.

Dear Sir:—Permit me to express my very great pleasure on learning of your purpose to offer yourself as a candidate for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of this Judicial District. I know of no person whom I believe to be as well qualified as yourself for the duties and responsibilities of this most important office. By training and temperament, by observation and wide travel you can bring to the bench qualities that are greatly needed. Added to this a character without blemish, an unexcelled knowledge of the law and the profound respect of your fellow citizens gives us the qualities so greatly needed in one who would worthily fill this high and exacting office. Pardon me for uttering sentiments that may seem to have been formed on too short an acquaintance but I am simply expressing not only my own feeling in the matter but what I have found to be the sentiment of the entire community.

You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you choose and if I can be of any service to you in any way you have only to command me.

Respectfully yours,
WM. R. BURRELL.

The only consoling feature most citizens get out of the new income tax blank is that the last one appeared to get by all right.

Edison just celebrated his 75th birthday. He can't invent anything to keep the years from piling up.

We found a man yesterday who was trying to buy a cold cure that wasn't advertised as "the old reliable."

And while they're at it, why not also take the poison gas out of peace too.

If it is a get-rich-quick proposition the man who hesitates doesn't lose.

Closing in on the Available Land

THE PROJECTING OF

Knollwood Village

which will reach to the Seaboard and the line of Southern Pines on the east, leaves but little available land for the man who wants to get in between Knollwood village and Southern Pines. But there is ONE LOCATION YET.

Edgemoore Heights

has some mighty desirable building sites between Weymouth and Knollwood, and this property is priced at a reasonable figure and is close in to all the Southern Pines conveniences.

EDGEMOORE HEIGHTS is the only high-class location that has yet kept

PRICES DOWN TO OLD-TIME FIGURES

With the building movement that appears to be just in sight in Southern Pines this location looks a quick winner now.
