REVIVAL AT M. E. CHURCH
 THIS WEEK

Much interest is being manifested by the people of the community in the meeting at the M. E. church. The church attendance is large and the services interesting and helpful. Rev. Bradley is very favorably remembered here, having been pastor of Old Johnson Grove church some ten or twelve years ago.

DON'TS FOR OUR TOWN

Don't fail to sound the praises of Vass wherever you are.

Don't make your money off of your neighbors and then spend it with strangers.

Don't frown on every public improvement simply because it may cost you a dollar or two.

Don't sneer at the efforts of your fellow citizens to build up the town, but lend a hand yourself.

Don't talk a great deal about what should be done and remain on the back seat waiting for someone else to do it.

Don't say the public schools are a failure because your boy has been upsetting the school's discipline and has been punished.

Don't stay at home on election day, but get out and hustle for good men and good government.

Don't let a good local paper, that is the town's untiring champion, abandon the business because of a lack of patronage.

Don't forget to drop your dollar in the slot when the committee that is after a new enterprise comes around with the subscription list.

Don't forget that in building up the town hearty co-operation, united endeavor and a spirit of get-there are what win the day. There is no pull like a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.

GIVE HER CREDIT

There is one thing we've got to give the women of Vass credit for—they do not very often make public comment on men's clothes and the way men groom themselves. They have their preference as to beards, and whether a mustache is or is not becoming. But they are not leading any crusades against the length of men's trousers nor kicking if the male of the species wants to go around with his shirt open at the neckband. Much criticised and commented on herself, woman holds her peace insofar as the personal attire of men is concerned. Is this because she realizes that to refrain from making public comment or taking organized action on personal matters is a little courtesy that oils the wheels of daily living, and that it would be better for all if the courtesies were returned. The clothing of women and girls—or the lack of it—is the topic for much criticism on the part of the male sex. But we must admit, and give credit accordingly, that on the other hand the average woman shows better judgment in that she lets man wear what he wants to, while she goes right ahead attending to her own business.

The bonus seems to strike some of our statesmen as just the thing, if some way can be arranged for not paying it.

The chap who likes to rock the boat doesn't mind striking a match to see how much gasoline is left in the tank.

MICKIE SAYS:

VESSIR, WE LIKE TH' BIG ADS AND ARE GLAD TO GET THEM BUT BETWEEN TH' QUARTER-PAGE ONCE IN A WHILE AND TH' LIL AD RIGHT ALONG, GIMME TH' CHAP WHO'S ON TH' JOB WEEK IN AN' WEEK OUT, FER HE'S THE BOY WHO'S GOINTA CARRY TH' BIG OVER-STUFFED POCKETBOOK! JEST LIKE THAT LIL RACE THAT TH' RABBIT 'N TH' MUDTURTLE PULLED OFF!

No little boy ever got his picture in the Hall of Fame for saying: "Mother, I'm sick; please give me a dose of castor oil."

Pretty soon now we'll again hear that story which starts: "I had him to the top of the water and he must have weighed ten pounds and——."

On the UP Turn!

All authorities are agreed that business is showing signs of a gradual improvement. The climax has passed, and we are going again in the right direction.

REAL ESTATE PRICES WILL GO UP.

Always the tendency of real estate prices is to go up. But where a halt comes folks sometimes conclude that a turn in the other direction follows. Such a step is rare. It is not the experience in the Sandhills, nor in any other place where there is reason for good prices.

Land Prices Held During the Depression.

Now comes the hour when they peg along again, and they will advance to make up for all the hesitation of the last year or so.

The Sandhills are Starting on a Boom.

The Best Purchase today is EDGEMOORE HEIGHTS Property.
